PRECEDENCE.

GENERAL REMARKS.

n the thirty-first year of King Henry VIII., Parliament, by statutory enactment, took ognizance of Precedence. It then passed the "Act for Placing the Lords," which, although concerned directly only the Great Officers of State, and referred but incidentally to the laces of the Nobility, has since been considered the chief authority for the marshalling of ignities. This Act was originated by the desire of the King, and it is declared, as a reliminary, that although it appertained altogether to the Royal Prerogative to give such onour, reputation, and placing to his Councillors and others his subjects as should be eeming to the King's most excellent wisdom, the King was nevertheless pleased and ontented for an order to be had and taken in his Most High Court of Parliament for the lacing of the Great Officers and Lords. In addition to this Act of Parliament, the Scale of recedence is sustained by royal ordinances and ancient usage. The least interference, unless ade by Royal or Parliamentary authority, would be destructive of the right of some one ntitled to rank on the scale.

The Law of Precedence, though thus confirmed temp. Henry VIII., dates from a far more istant era than the "Act for Placing the Lords." Regulations concerning it were officially sued at various periods long antecedent. The first, in point of date, was "The Order of all states of Nobles and Gentry of England," framed in 1339, and the last officially issued before ie Statute of Henry VIII., the series ordinum of the reign of Henry VII., which Coke onsiders of the highest authority. The Statute of Henry VIII. was in the nature of a eclaratory Act, confirming the ancient and pre-existing Law of Precedence, and, in confirmation this, it is a matter of historical fact that the advice of Garter King of Arms was taken efore the bill was brought in.

The next important decrees of Precedence were those of King James I., dated 1612 and 616. A dispute had arisen between Barons' and Viscounts' younger sons, and the then newly reated order of Baronets, as to which should take the higher place, and it was finally determined y the King himself in favour of the Peers' sons.

A leading principle of the Law of Precedence is that precedence emanates from father or usband, and cannot be derived from a female, unless in the case of a Peeress in her own ght. The daughter and sole heiress of the first Duke of the Kingdom (unless a Peeress in er own right), would confer no higher precedence on her son, than if she were the daughter a simple citizen.

It is very difficult to determine when precedence, in the descendants of Dukes, Princes of ie Blood Royal, ends. Miles, in his Catalogue of Honour of the time of James I., a work deep research, compiled from the MSS. of his uncle, the learned Robert Glover, Somerset erald, at a period when the subject of precedence was much canvassed and considered, serts that "Dukes descended of the Royal Blood," take place above Dukes not descended the Royal Blood. How far Glover was borne out in this statement I have not been able to scover, but I must confess my own opinion is very much in accordance with his. At the Court France, under the old régime, the Royal Family and its descendants were always first.

The question of the precedence of the Great Officers of State of Ireland and Scotland th reference to similar officers in England, is not provided for by the Acts of Union, and has ver yet been definitely settled, unless, indeed, the placing of the Lord Chancellor of Ireland xt to the Lord Chancellor of Great Britain, at the Coronation of King William IV., be emed a royal settlement of the point. Selden is of opinion that "The lists that show actice and custom in matters of precedence, are seen in the published assemblies of the States l other solemnities of Coronations, funerals, and the like."

SCALE OF GENERAL OR SOCIAL PRECEDENCE.

The precedence here indicated is that which is known as general of social precedenc and is admitted on all occasions and in all society. The Clergy, the Bar, the Military, a other classes have amongst themselves a certain relative rank; but such relative rank peculiar to each of these classes, and gives them no position on the general or social sca The following scale comprises those only who enjoy dignities, or (in case of men) offici appointments coming within some one of the authorities here cited of statute, patent, or usag

The marks, or absence of marks show the authorities.

55000 Wives of the younger Sons of Baronets
56000 Wives of the younger Sons of Knights

To these are usually added the Wives of Esquires and Gentlemen.

RULES OF PRECEDENCE.

I.—Men of Official Rank, who have higher personal precedence, are placed according to that higher personal precedence.

II.—It is Men's rank that confers precedence and regulates State Ceremonials. At the King's Courts, where husbands and wives pass His Majesty together, the precedence of the husbands is that which is regarded.

III.—The Wives and Children of Great Officers of State and of all of those who derive their places on the scale from official rank, have no consequent precedence, nor have the wives and children of Archbishops and Bishops.

IV.—A Lady, having precedence by birth (for instance, the daughter of a Peer, Baronet, or Knight), retains her innate rank and precedence although married to a Commoner, but if she be married to a Peer, her precedence is that of her husband.

V.—Widows of Peers, Baronets, and Knights, on marrying Commoners, continue by the etiquette of society, though not by law, to retain their titles and precedence. At a Coronation or other state ceremonial, widows of Peers who have married Commoners are not summoned to attend; this rule was followed at the funeral of the Duke of Wellington. In society it is different, and the widows of Peers, Baronets, and Knights, married to untitled Commoners, generally adhere to the titles acquired by their first marriages, although the practice is not derived from right. Widows of "Honorables" who subsequently marry Commoners (not sons of Peers), are not allowed, even by the etiquette of society, to retain the prefix of "Honorable" after such subsequent marriages.

VI.—A Peeress in her own right does not lose her rank and precedence by marriage or widowhood; if she be married to a Peer of higher degree than her own, she has her husband's precedence.

VII.—Daughters of Peers, Baronets, and Knights, and other persons of dignity, rank next immediately after the wives of their eldest brothers.

VIII.—Dowager Peeresses, and Baronets' Widows take precedence of the wives of the existing Peers and Baronets of the same creations, from their being senior in the dignity, from their husbands having been nearer the succession; for instance, the Dowager Duchess of Beaufort has precedence of the wife of the present Duke of Beaufort; and on the same principle of being nearer the succession, the son of an existing Peer has precedence above the son of a previous holder of the same title.

IX.—Peers and Peeresses take rank among themselves, thus—I., of England; II., of Scotland; III., of Great Britain; IV., of Ireland; and V. of the United Kingdom and of Ireland, created since the Union, according to the dates of the respective patents.

X.—Maids of Honour to Her Majesty the Queen take rank after Barons' daughters, and are allowed the prefix of "Hon."

XI.—The Baronets of England, the Baronets of Ireland, the Baronets of Scotland, ie Baronets of Great Britain, and the Baronets of the United Kingdom, take rank nong themselves according to the dates of their respective patents. The Act of Union of reat Britain and Ireland, which fixes the precedence of the different orders of the Peerage, acts no other precedence nor does it interfere with or disturb in the slightest degree any her forms of precedence that might then have been in force. It is silent as to the English, ish, or Scotch Baronets, and consequently whatever precedence their original patents nferred, is not affected by that enactment. For instance, Sir Algernon Coote inherits a ronetcy of Ireland, conferred in 1621, and, has, by right, the precedence of that date. here is no law or statute to deprive him of it, or to make him give place, for instance, to r Henry Michael Hawley, whose great-grandfather, Henry Hawley, was created a Baronet of eat Britain in 1795. Some argue that as the Act of Union fixed the precedence of the ers of the Three Kingdoms, the precedence of the Baronets may be assumed by analogy; it surely no lawyer or herald would admit the power of "analogy" to destroy a right derived Patent from the Crown.

XII.—Privy-Councillors of Great Britain and Privy-Councillors of Ireland, take rank, ter se, according to the dates of their being sworn in.

XIII.—Ambassadors yield precedence only to members of the Royal Family of the Court which they are accredited, and to the sons and brothers of Crowned Heads. Foreign inisters and Envoys have no real claim to precedence. The question was raised and settled the Congress of Vienna, in 1815, but of late years place has been allowed them in this untry, after Dukes and before Marquesses.

XIV.—Esquires—Armiger, or Esquire, is not, like those names given in the Statute 1 ward VI., c. 7, s. 3, a name of dignity, but is (as is also, according to Sir Edward Cooke, ntleman or Yeoman) a name of worship, and cannot be attached to any of the dignities entioned in the Statute of Edward VI. The different classes to whom the title of Esquire longs are:—

1. The sons of all the peers and lords of parliament during the lives of their fathers; the younger sons of peers after the death of their fathers; the eldest sons of the younger sons of peers and their eldest sons in perpetual succession.
2. Noblemen of other nations.
3. The eldest (and we think, if any, all the) sons of baronets, and the eldest sons of knights.
4. Esquires created expressly with a collar of SS., and spurs of silver—now obsolete.
5. Persons to whom the King gives arms by his own letters patent, with the title of Esquire.
6. Esquires of the Bath, and the eldest sons of those Esquires, pursuant to the statutes of the Order.
7. Barristers-at-law, by their office or profession.
8. Justices of the peace, and mayors, while in the commission, or in office.
9. Persons chosen Esquires to the body of the Prince—now obsolete.
10. Persons attending on the Sovereign's coronation in some notable employment, or persons employed in any superior office of trust (where they have discretionary power, and are not, such as clerks, merely ministerial) under the Crown, or serving in some place of better note in the King's household.
11. Persons who are styled Esquires by the King in their patents, commissions, or appointments, such as sheriffs of counties, or captains in the army and navy.
12. Attorneys in colonies, where the departments of counsel and attorney are united.

XV.—H.M. Lieutenant of a County and the High Sheriff of a County are given the st places in their own counties. Between the two the higher position appertains, in my inion, to H.M. Lieutenant of a county.

XVI.—Archbishops take precedence of all Dukes next to those of the Blood Royal. The chbishop of Canterbury ranks as first lord, and the Archbishop of York as third coming mediately after the Lord Chancellor.

XVII.—By an act of parliament passed in the thirty-first year of Henry VIII., it was settled at Bishops take precedence of all Barons, and immediately after Viscounts; the Bishops London, Durham, and Winchester, preceding their Right Reverend brethren, who take rank ong themselves according to seniority of consecration.

XVIII.—Privy Councillors not being Peers or holding certain offices, are placed immediately er Knights of the Garter. In the Privy Council, all persons who have higher rank than that Privy Councillor take precedence according to such higher rank. All who have no such her rank take precedence according to the date of their being sworn into the Privy Council.

XIX.—Special precedence is assigned to the Lord Chief Justice of England and the Master the Rolls by virtue of their offices. The precedence of the other Judges (who take rank ong themselves according to seniority of appointment) is as follows:—

Lords Justices of Appeal and the President of the Probate Divorce and Admiralty visions.

Judges of the High Court of Justice.

Judges of County Courts, Serjeants-at-Law, Masters in Chancery, and Masters in Lunacy low the Knights Bachelors, and precede the Companions of the several Orders of Knighthood.

PRECEDENCE OF DIPLOMATIC AGENTS.

(In force December, 1899.)

REGULATIONS ANNEXED TO THE VIENNA CONGRESS TREATY OF JUNE 9, 1815.

In order to prevent the inconveniences which have frequently occurred, and which might again arise, from claims of precedence among different Diplomatic Agents, the Plenipotentiaries of the Powers who signed the Treaty of Paris have agreed on the following Articles, and they think it their duty to invite the Plenipotentiaries of other Crowned Heads to adopt the same regulation:

ARTICLE I.—Diplomatic Agents are divided into three classes:—That of Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios; that of Envoys, Ministers, or other persons accredited to Sovereigns; that of Chargés d'Affaires accredited to Ministers for Foreign Affairs.

II. Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios only, have the representative character.

III. Diplomatic Agents on an extraordinary mission have not, on that account, any superiority of rank.

IV. Diplomatic Agents shall take precedence in their respective classes according to the date of the official notification of their arrival. The present Regulation shall not cause any innovation with regard to the Representatives of the Pope.

V. A uniform mode shall be determined in each State for the reception of Diplomatic Agents of each class.

VI. Relations of consanguinity, or of family alliance between Courts, confer no precedence on their Diplomatic Agents. The same rule also applies to political alliances.

VII. In Acts or Treaties between several Powers which grant alternate precedence, the order which is to be observed in the signatures shall be decided by lot between the Ministers.

The present Regulation is inserted in the Protocol of the Plenipotentiaries of the Eight Powers who signed the Treaty of Paris at their sitting of the 19th March, 1815.

Signed in the alphabetical order of the Courts by the Principal Plenipotentiaries of Austria, (Espagne) Spain, France, Great Britain, Portugal, Prussia, Russia, Sweden.

PROTOCOL OF CONFERENCE OF THE FIVE POWERS. AIX-LA-CHAPELLE, NOVEMBER 21, 1818.
(MINISTERS RESIDENT.)

In order to avoid inconvenient discussions which might in future arise upon a point of Diplomatic Etiquette, which appears not to have been anticipated in the Annex to the Treaty of Vienna, whereby questions of precedence were regulated, it is agreed between the Five Courts that Ministers Resident accredited to them shall form, with respect to their precedence, an intermediate class between Ministers of the Second Class and Chargés d'Affaires.

PRECEDENCE BETWEEN CONSULAR OFFICERS AND NAVAL AND MILITARY OFFICERS.

(In force December, 1899.)

The comparative rank of Consular Officers, and of Officers in His Majesty's Naval and Military Services, is as follows:—

Agents and Consuls-General rank with, but after, Major-Generals and Rear-Admirals.

Consuls-General rank with, but after, Brigadiers and Commodores.

Consuls rank with, but after, Colonels, and Captains, R.N., of three years' standing, and before all other such Captains.

Vice-Consuls rank with, but after, Majors and Lieutenants, R.N., of eight years' standing.

Consular-Agents rank with, but after, Captains in the Army; and Lieutenants, R.N., of less than eight years' standing.

Consular Officers will take rank in their respective grades amongst their Colleagues at the Port of their Residence, in conformity with the Rules prescribed by the Congress of Vienna for Diplomatic Agents, viz.: priority of seniority according to Official Title and to recognition.

RECEDENCE BETWEEN MEMBERS OF THE DIPLOMATIC SERVICE AND NAVAL AND MILITARY OFFICERS ATTACHED TO EMBASSIES AND MISSIONS ABROAD.

(In force December, 1899.)

Naval and Military Officers holding naval or military rank above that of Post Captain the Navy or Colonel in the Army, who may be attached to His Majesty's Embassies or issions for special purposes, have Place and Precedence next in succession to the Head of the ission for the time being, whatever his designation.

Naval and Military Officers holding naval or military rank as Post Captain in the Navy or olonel in the Army, or naval or military rank of a lower order, who may be attached to is Majesty's Embassies or Missions for special purposes, have Place and Precedence next succession to the Secretary of Embassy or of Legation.

RELATIVE RANK OF THE OFFICERS OF THE NAVY AND ARMY.

The relative rank of Officers of the Navy with each other and with Officers of the Army shall e as laid down in the following List, and shall in every case take effect according to the dates f their respective commissions, or appointments, except when the relative rank is dependent on he attainment of seniority or completion of service, in which case it shall take effect from such ttainment of seniority or completion of service in the particular rank.

Nothing contained in these regulations is to give a claim to any Officer of the Navy to assume ommand of His Majesty's Land Forces on shore, nor to any Officer of the Army to assume ommand of any of His Majesty's squadrons or Ships, or of any of the Officers or Men thereunto elonging, unless under special authority from the Government in England for any particular ervice. But when Officers of the Navy are employed on shore, on joint service with His Majesty's Land Forces, their relative rank shall carry with it all precedence and advantages ttaching to the rank with which it corresponds (except command as aforesaid), and shall egulate the choice of quarters, rates of lodging money, servants, forage, fuel, and light, or llowances in their stead.

The precedence of the Naval Commander-in-Chief in India is next below the Commander-n-Chief in India, if not a Member of Council, and irrespective of their relative Military rank.

At Durbars, Processions, and other Public Ceremonies in India, a distinctive place will be ssigned to the Senior Naval Officer on the spot in the absence of the Commander-in-Chief, without eference to his relative military rank.

Under the regulations formerly in force, the precedence of the Officer in command of His Majesty's Forces in any Colony, was dependent on the question whether or not he was entitled o administer the Government of the Colony in the absence of the Governor. But the alteration of circumstances has rendered this arrangement in some cases inconvenient or anomalous, there-ore it is His Majesty's pleasure that the following rules be now observed in the Colonies in egard to the precedency of Members of the Royal Family and of Military and Naval Officers n command of His Majesty's Forces:—

a. Any Member of the Royal Family, present in a Colony, shall rank therein next after the Governor thereof.

b. The Officer in command of His Majesty's Naval Forces on the Station, if of the rank of an Admiral, and the Senior Officer in command of the Troop, if of the rank of a General, are to have precedency next after the Governor (and any Member of the Royal Family present) their own relative rank being determined by the King's Regulations, and Governors of other Colonies shall rank next after such Naval and Military Officers.

c. The Senior Officer in command of the troops, if of the rank of Colonel or Lieutenant-Colonel, and the Officer in command of His Majesty's Naval Forces on the Station, if of equivalent rank, are to have precedency next after the Bishop and the Chief Justice, their own relative rank being determined by the King's Regulations on that subject.

d. If below the rank of Colonel or Lieutenant-Colonel, the Senior Officer in command of the Troops, and the Officer in command of His Majesty's Naval Forces on the Station, are to continue to take rank, as has heretofore been the case, next after the Solicitor-General.

1. Admirals of the Fleet	Rank with	Field Marshals.
2. Admirals	,,	Generals*.
3. Vice-Admirals	,,	Lieutenant-Generals*.
4. Rear-Admirals, and Inspectors-General of Hospitals and Fleets	,,	Major-Generals*.
5. Commodores, 1st and 2nd Class, and Captains of the Fleet	,,	Brigadier-Generals.
6. Captains of 3 years' seniority, and Staff Captains of 4 years' seniority; Deputy Inspectors-General of Hospitals and Fleets; Secretaries to Admirals of the Fleet according to service in that rank; Paymasters-in-Chief; Chief Inspectors of Machinery; Inspectors of Machinery, of 8 years' service in that rank	,,	Colonels.
7. Captains under 3 years' seniority, and Staff Captains; Secretaries to Commanders-in-Chief, of 5 years' service in that rank; Inspectors of Machinery under 8 years' service in that rank	,,	Lieutenant-Colonels.
8. Commanders, and Staff Commanders; Fleet Surgeons †; Secretaries to Commanders-in-Chief, under 5 years' service in that rank; Fleet Paymasters; Fleet Engineers; Naval Instructors of 15 years' seniority	,,	Lieutenant-Colonels, but junior of that rank.
9. Lieutenants, of 8 years' seniority, and Navigating Lieutenants, of 8 years' seniority; Staff Surgeons; Secretaries to Junior Flag Officers, Commodores 1st Class, or Captains of the Fleet; Staff Paymasters; Staff Engineers; Naval Instructors of 8 years' seniority	,,	Majors.
10. Paymasters and Chief Engineers, but junior of that rank
11. Lieutenants, under 8 years' seniority; Surgeons; Secretaries to Commodores, 2nd Class; Assistant Paymasters of 12 years' seniority; Engineers of 6 years' seniority; Naval Instructors under 8 years' seniority	,,	Captains.
12. Assistant Paymasters of 6 years, and Engineers under 6 years' seniority, but junior of that rank
13. Sub-Lieutenants, and Assistant Paymaster under 6 years' seniority; Assistant Engineers	,,	Lieutenants.
14. Chief Gunner, Chief Boatswain, and Chief Carpenter, but junior of that rank	,,	Second Lieutenants.
15. Gunners, Boatswains, and Carpenters, but junior of that rank	,,	1st Class Staff Serjeant-Majors Army Service Corps, Conductors Army Ordnance Corps, Master Gunners 1st Class.
16. Midshipmen, and Clerks, but senior of that rank

* The relative precedence is not affected by a General Officer happening to be the Lieutenant-Governor of a fortress at home.

† In all other matters wherein the army and navy administration are concerned, Fleet Surgeons will rank with and as Brigade Surgeons.

MILITARY RANK AND COMMAND.

An Officer appointed to command, or an Officer appointed second in command of a Regiment Battalion in the Army shall exercise command over any other Officers serving therein, respectively of the date of appointment. All other Officers, except those of the Indian aff Corps, doing duty with their Regiments shall take rank according to their dates of ppointment in that rank to such Regiments, whether promoted on full-pay or appointed from lf-pay; and all Officers serving together with Officers of other Corps shall take rank according the dates of their respective appointments to that rank in the Army. Should two Officers the same rank have been gazetted to such rank with the same date, their precedence shall, cept in the case of an Officer appointed to command a Regiment or Battalion, be determined the date of their next lower rank.

If an Officer be placed upon half-pay on account of ill-health caused by Military service, under circumstances over which he had no control, and be subsequently brought back to ll-pay in the same rank and Corps or Department, he shall, for precedence in his rank, take e same numerical position as he occupied when placed on half-pay.

If an Officer placed on half-pay on account of wounds, or of sickness caused by active rvice in the field, be subsequently brought back to full-pay in the same rank and Corps or partment, he shall, for precedence in his rank, revert to the original position in relation to e Officers of his Corps or Department held by him when placed on half-pay, except that, ould any Officers have been promoted during his absence, he shall not be entitled to supersede em in the rank to which they had been promoted, nor have any right himself to promotion til after his restoration to full pay in the Corps or Department, and then only in ordinary ccession.

Officers of the Army, serving in any British Colony or Dependency, with rank granted the King, shall have precedence of Colonial Officers of equal rank, but if holding local nk conferred upon them by the Colonial authorities, shall take rank with Colonial Officers cording to the dates of their respective Colonial ranks; provided that Colonels serving the Dominion of Canada, with rank granted by the King, or by the General Officer mmanding the Forces there, shall have precedence of, and command over, all Colonial ficers; and also that Field Officers of the Regular Forces in a Colony or Dependency shall ve precedence of, and command over, Field Officers of the Permanent, Militia, and Volunteer rces there, if so ordered by the Governor. Local or temporary rank granted to an Officer the Army on assuming command of Colonial Forces, or when proceeding to a Colony for any ecial Service, shall be conferred by the King.

Officers of the Regular Forces, and Officers of the Militia who take rank with Officers the Regular Forces as the youngest of their degree, shall have precedence of and mmand the Officers of equal degree serving in the Hon. Artillery Company, Yeomanry valry, and Volunteer Corps; and the Officers of the Hon. Artillery Company, Yeomanry valry, and Volunteer Corps shall rank together according to the dates of their respective nks. Other questions of precedence among Officers of the same rank in different branches the Services, when on duty, shall be subject to such Regulations as the Secretary of State ay from time to time make.

NAVAL RANK AND COMMAND.

OFFICERS IN GENERAL.

The Officers of His Majesty's Navy are divided into two branches, namely:—A Military Branch and a Civil Branch.

The Military Branch, comprised of the undermentioned Officers, shall rank (and, with the exceptions hereinafter mentioned, command also) in the following order:—

1. Admirals of the Fleet.
2. Admirals.
3. Vice-Admirals.
4. Rear-Admirals.
5. Commodores.
6. Captains.
7. Staff-Captains.
8. Commanders.
9. Staff-Commanders.
10. Lieutenants.
11. Navigating Lieutenants.
12. Sub-Lieutenants.
13. Chief Gunners. } According to dates
14. Chief Boatswains. } of commission.
15. Gunners. } According to dates of
16. Boatswains. } warrant.
17. Midshipmen.
18. Naval Cadets.

Commodores, when in the presence of Captains senior to them, shall rank and command according to their seniority as Captains.

When Commanders, Lieutenants, or Sub-Lieutenants, who are Seniors to the Executive Officer, are appointed for Navigating duties, they will, in the absence of the Captain, succeed to the command of the Ship; but they are not to take upon themselves the routine duties of the Executive Officer except by order of the Captain, or in case of necessity.

Staff-Captains, Staff-Commanders, and Navigating Lieutenants, whatever their rank and seniority may be, are in all matters of command, and in all details relating to the duties of the Fleet, and to the discipline and interior economy of His Majesty's ships, to be held subject to the authority of any Officer, not below the rank of Lieutenant, who may be in charge of the executive duties of the ship, or in charge of any other special service or duty, of whatever seniority such Officer may be.

Officers in command of His Majesty's ships must, on occasions, whether on shore or afloat, take rank and precedence of Officers placed under their command.

A ship must always be represented by an Officer of the Military Branch in the following order of command:—

1. Captain.
2. Commander.
3. Lieutenant.
4. Staff-Captain.
5. Staff-Commander.
6. Navigating Lieutenant.
7. Sub-Lieutenant.
8. Chief Gunner.
9. Chief Boatswain.
10. Gunner.
11. Boatswain.
12. Midshipman.
13. Naval Cadet.

At Courts of Inquiry, Surveys, and other similar assemblages of Officers, the Officer who in virtue of his office would, under these Regulations, take the military command, is in all cases to preside, irrespective of the relative rank of the other members.

All Officers of the same denomination in the Military Branch shall rank and command according to the order in which their names stand in the Official List of Officers of the Royal Navy; or, when not inserted in the List, according to the dates of their first Commissions, Warrants, or Orders, in their existing rank; and, if acting only, according to the seniority of their respective acting appointments; but Commanders and Lieutenants serving in a ship bearing the Flag of a Senior Flag Officer present, or the Broad Pendant of a Commodore of the First Class, being the Senior Officer present, or in the ship of the Senior Officer of five or more ships present, shall, when in the presence of, or acting under the immediate order from, such Senior Flag Officer or Commodore, or Senior Officer of five or more ships present, and detached on service in company with other Commanders, and Lieutenants of the Fleet or Squadron present, take rank and command respectively of all other Commanders and Lieutenants. Under all other circumstances, Commanders and Lieutenants of Flag Ships, as well as those of other ships, will take rank only according to their proper seniority.

The Civil Branch shall consist of the undermentioned Officers and they shall rank in the lowing order, and with Officers of the Military Branch, as herein expressed:—

* Officers who had attained 12 and 6 years' seniority as Paymaster before 17 February, 1886, will take rank from dates of attaining such seniority instead of from dates of commissions as Fleet and Staff Paymaster.

† Officers who had attained 8 and 4 years' seniority as Chief Engineer before 17 February, 1886, will take rank from dates of attaining such seniority, instead of from dates of commissions as Fleet and Staff-Engineer.

PRECEDENCE IN THE COLONIES.

The precedency of Colonial Officers is in some cases determined by Colonial enactments, by Royal Charters, by Instructions communicated either under the Royal Signet and Sign Manual through the Secretary of State, or by authoritative usage. In the absence of any such special authority, Governors are to guide themselves by the subjoined table.

Table of Precedence of Colonial Officers.

The Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Officer administering the Government.
The Senior Officer in command of the Troops, if of the rank of a General, and the Officer in command of His Majesty's Naval Forces on the Station, if of the rank of an Admiral, their own relative rank being determined by the King's Regulations on that subject.
The Bishop.
The Chief Justice.
The Senior Officer in command of the Troops, if of the rank of Colonel or Lieutenant-Colonel, and the Officer in command of His Majesty's Naval Forces on the Station, if of equivalent rank, their own relative rank being determined by the King's Regulations on that subject.
The Members of the Executive Council.
The Puisne Judges.
The President of the Legislative Council.
The Members of the Legislative Council.
The Speaker of the House of Assembly.
The Members of the House of Assembly.
The Colonial Secretary (not being in the Executive Council).
The Commissioners or Government Agents of Provinces or Districts.
The Attorney-General.
The Solicitor-General.
The Senior Officer in command of the Troops, if below the rank of Colonel or Lieutenant-Colonel, and the Senior Naval Officer of corresponding rank.
The Archdeacon.
The Treasurer, Paymaster-General, or Collector of Internal Revenue.
The Auditor-General or Inspector-General of Accounts.
The Commissioner of Crown Lands.
The Collector of Customs.
The Comptroller of Customs.
The Surveyor-General.
} Not being Members of Executive Council.
Clerk of the Executive Council.
Clerk of the Legislative Council.
Clerk of the House of Assembly.

In Courts for the trial of Piracy, the Members are to take rank according to the order in which they are designated in His Majesty's commission; except in the case of the Naval Commander-in-Chief (where there is one), to whom, as a matter of courtesy, the chair on the right of the President of the Court is assigned.

Persons entitled to precedence in the United Kingdom or in Foreign Countries, or in other Colonies, are not entitled, as of a right, to the same precedence in a Colony; but in the absence of any special Instructions from the King, the precedence of such persons relatively to the above-mentioned Colonial Officers will be determined by the Governor, having regard to the social condition of the Colony under his Government.

By circular despatch of 26 February, 1889, it is directed that members of the Royal Family should take precedence next after the Governor of the Colony, and Governors of other Colonies should have precedence next after the Military and Naval Officers commanding His Majesty's forces, and being of the rank of General or Admiral respectively.

BRITISH ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD.

THE MOST NOBLE ORDER OF THE GARTER.

Instituted by King Edward III. about August, 1348.

(K.G.)

HABIT AND INSIGNIA.

THE GARTER of dark-blue velvet, edged with gold, bearing the motto in golden letters, with buckle and pendant of gold richly chased. The garter is worn on the left leg below the knee.

THE HOOD of crimson velvet.

THE SURCOAT likewise of crimson velvet, lined with white taffeta.

THE HAT of black velvet, lined with white taffeta; a plume of white ostrich feathers, in the centre of which a tuft of black heron's feathers, all fastened to the hat by a band of diamonds.

THE COLLAR, gold, consisting of twenty-six pieces, each in form of a garter, enamelled, azure, and appended thereto.

THE GEORGE, or figure of St. George on horseback, encountering the dragon. The George is worn to the collar; and the lesser George, pendant to a broad dark-blue ribbon over the left shoulder.

THE STAR of eight points, silver, upon the centre of which the Cross of St. George, gules, encircled with the garter.

By a statute passed on the 28th June, 1831, the Order is to consist of the Sovereign, and twenty-five Knights-Companions, together with such lineal descendants of King GEORGE the First as may be elected always excepting the Prince of Wales, who is a constituent part of the original institution. Special statutes have since, at different times, been promulgated for the admission of Sovereigns and Extra Knights, the latter of whom have, however, always become part of the twenty-five Companions on the occurrence of vacancies.

THE MOST ANCIENT AND MOST NOBLE ORDER OF THE THISTLE.

Revived by King James II. in 1687. Re-established by Queen Anne, 31*st December,* 1703.
(K.T.)

THE STAR of this Order, which is worn on the left side of the coat or cloak, consists of a St. Andrew's cross, of silver embroidery, with rays emanating from between the points of the cross, in the centre of which is a Thistle of green, heightened with gold, upon a field of gold, surrounded by a circle of green, bearing the motto of the Order in golden characters.

THE BADGE, OR JEWEL, worn pendant to the collar, or to a dark green ribbon over the left shoulder and tied under the arm. It consists of a figure of St. Andrew, of gold enamelled, with his gown green and the surcoat purple, bearing before him the cross, enamelled white, the whole surrounded by rays of gold in the form of a glory; the cross and feet resting upon the ground, of enamelled green.

THE COLLAR is of Thistles, intermingled with sprigs of rue.

THE MANTLE, or Robe, is of green velvet lined with taffeta and tied with cords and tassels of green and gold. On the left side is the figure of St. Andrew bearing the cross, in silver embroidery on a green ground, within a circle of gold inscribed "Nemo me impune lacessit." On the lower part of the circle is a thistle in green and gold, the flower of a reddish colour.

By a statute passed in May, 1827, the Order is to consist of the Sovereign and sixteen Knights.

RIBBON OF THE ORDER—Sky-blue.

THE MOST HONOURABLE ORDER OF THE BATH.

Instituted in 1399. Revived in 1725. Enlarged in 1815 and 1847.

On the 2nd of Jan. 1815, it was declared that, "for the purpose of commemorating the auspicious termin tion of the long and arduous contest in which this empire has been engaged," the order should be composed three classes, and on the 14th April, 1847, it was further extended by the addition of civil knights commande and companions, on which occasion new Statutes were promulgated for the government of the Order, and tl number of members declared by subsequent statutes as follows, viz.,

1st Class—to consist of knights grand cross; number not to exceed, for the military service, fifty-five exclusi of the Sovereign and princes of the blood royal, and such distinguished foreigners as may be nominate honorary knights grand cross; and twenty-seven for the civil service.

2nd Class—Knights commanders, numbers not to exceed for the military service, one hundred and forty-fiv and for the civil service one hundred and five, exclusive of foreign officers, who may be admitted as honora knights commanders. In the event of actions of signal distinction, or of future wars, the numbers may be increase of this as well as of the third class. The members of the second class are entitled to the distinctive appellation knighthood, after having been invested with the Insignia; to take precedence of Knights Bachelors; to we the badge, &c., pendent by a red ribbon round the neck, the star embroidered on the left side.

3rd Class—Companions of the Order, to consist, for military service, of seven hundred and five and for th civil service of two hundred and eighty-three; they are to take precedence of esquires, but are not entitled to th appellation, style, &c., of knights bachelors. To wear the badge assigned to the third class, pendent by a narro red ribbon from the left breast. No officer can be nominated to the military division of the third class of th Order, unless his services have been marked by special mention of his name as having distinguished himself action against the enemy. This class has never been conferred upon any officer below the rank of major in th army and commander in the navy.

The Badge for the Military Classes of the Order is a gold Maltese cross, of eight points enamelle argent; in the four angles, a lion passant-guardant, or; in the centre, the rose, thistle, and shamrock, issuan from a sceptre between three imperial crowns, or, within a circle, gules; thereon the motto of the Order, su rounded by two branches of laurel, proper, issuing from an escrol, azure, inscribed Ich Dien (I serve), in lette of gold. It is worn by the grand crosses pendent from a red ribbon across the right shoulder, by the knigh commanders from the neck, and by the companions from the button-hole.

The Collar is of gold (weight, thirty ounces Troy weight), and is composed of nine imperial crowns an eight roses, thistle, and shamrock, issuing from a sceptre, enamelled in their proper colours, tied or linke together with seventeen gold knots, enamelled white, having the badge of the Order pendant therefrom.

The Star of the Military Grand Crosses is formed of rays or flames of silver, thereon a gold Malte cross, and in the centre, within the motto, branches of laurel, issuant as in the badge.

The Civil Knights Grand Crosses retain the old badge and star of the Order. The Star is of silve formed with eight points or rays, charged with three imperial crowns, proper, upon a glory of silver rays, su rounded with a red circle, upon which is the motto of the Order. Their badge is of gold, composed of a ros thistle, and shamrock, issuing from a sceptre between three imperial crowns, encircled by the motto. The civ knights commanders wear the same badge, of a smaller size, round the neck by a red ribbon, and the civ companions the same, but of a still smaller size, from the button-hole, pendent from a red ribbon.

The Star of the Knights Commanders is in the form of a cross-patée of silver, having the same cent as the grand crosses, but without a gold Maltese cross thereon. The star of the civil knights commanders of the same form and size, only omitting the laurel wreath round the circle containing the motto and the escr with the words, "Ich dien" underneath.

THE MOST EXALTED ORDER OF THE STAR OF INDIA.

Instituted by Her Majesty Queen Victoria, February 23rd, 1861, and enlarged, March 28th, 1866, and 1876.

The Order consists of the Sovereign, a Grand Master, and 205 Ordinary Companions or Members togeth with such Extra and Honorary Members as the Sovereign, his heirs and successors, shall from time time appoint. The 205 Ordinary Members are divided into three Classes:—the first Class are styl Knights Grand Commanders, and to consist of thirty-six Members (ex-Viceroys additional); the seco Class to consist of eighty Members, to be styled Knights Commanders; the third Class to consist of o hundred and sixty Members, to be styled Companions, and of such Honorary Members as the Sovereign m think fit to confer the honour of being received into the Order. The Viceroy and Governor-Gene of India for the time being is to be Grand Master.

The statutes enable the Sovereign to confer the dignity of Knight Grand Commander of the Order upon Princ and Chiefs of India as shall have entitled themselves to His Majesty's favour, and upon such of His Majest British subjects as have, by important and loyal services rendered by them to the Indian Empire, merited t Royal favour; and the second and third Classes upon persons who, by their conduct for services in the Indi Empire, or after not less than thirty years' service in the department of His Majesty's Secretary of State f India, have merited the Royal favour.

THE STAR.—Rays of gold issuing from centre, having thereon a star in diamonds, resting upon a light blue enamelled circular riband, tied at the ends, inscribed with the motto of the Order, viz.:—"HEAVEN'S LIGHT OUR GUIDE," also in diamonds.

THE COLLAR.—Composed of the lotus of India, of palm branches, tied together, in saltier, and of the united Red and White Rose. In the centre is an imperial crown; all richly enamelled on gold, in their proper colours.

THE BADGE.—An onyx cameo of H Majesty Queen Victoria's effigy, set in perforated and ornamented oval, contai ing the motto of the Order, "HEAVEN LIGHT OUR GUIDE," surmounted by a st all in diamonds. The Ribbon of th Order is sky-blue, having a narrow whi stripe towards either edge, and is wo from the right shoulder to the left side.

THE MANTLE.—Light blue satin, lin with white, and fastened with a cordo of white silk, with blue and silver ta sels, on the left side a representation the star of the Order.

The Knights Commanders wear around their necks a riband of the same colours and pattern as that of th First Class, but two inches in width, hanging therefrom the Badge of a smaller size than that appointed fo the Knights Grand Commanders except the star, which surmounts it, is of silver; on their left breast a st composed of rays of silver issuing from a gold centre, having thereon a silver star resting upon a blue enamelle circular riband, tied at the ends, inscribed with the motto of the Order.

The Companions wear from the left breast a Badge of the same form as appointed for the Knigh Commanders, but of a smaller size pendent to the like riband of the breadth of one inch and a half.

THE SOVEREIGN,

H.M. KING EDWARD VII.

GRAND MASTER,

THE VICEROY AND GOVERNOR-GENERAL OF INDIA, THE RIGHT HON. LORD CURZON OF KEDLESTON.

OFFICERS OF THE ORDER.

Secretary—Sir William John Cuningham, K.C.S.I.
Registrar—Sir Albert William Woods, K.C.B., K.C.M.G., Garter King of Arms.

THE MOST DISTINGUISHED ORDER OF ST. MICHAEL AND ST. GEORGE.

Instituted 27th April, 1818, by Letters Patent, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, and enlarged and extended 4th Dec. 1868, and 30th May, 1877, for the natural born subjects of the Crown of the United Kingdom as may have held or shall hold high and confidential offices within His Majesty's colonial possessions, and in reward for services to the Crown in relation to the foreign affairs of the Empire, &c.

The Order is to consist of not more than fifty Knights Grand Cross, exclusive of Extra and Honorary Members, one hundred and fifty Knights Commanders, and two hundred and sixty Companions.

THE members of the Order enjoy rank and precedency immediately after the corresponding classes of the Order of the Star of India: that is to say, the Knights Grand Cross after Knights Grand Commanders of the Star of India; the Knights Commanders after the Knights Commanders of the Star of India; and the Companions after the Companions of the Star of India. The Grand Master is the First and Principal Knight Grand Cross. The Knights Grand Cross are entitled to bear supporters, and to encircle their arms with the collar, ribbon, and motto of the Order. The Knights Commanders also encircle their arms with the ribbon and motto; and the Companions suspend the badge of the Order to their arms.

HABIT AND INSIGNIA.

THE STAR of a Knight Grand Cross is composed of seven rays of silver, having a small ray of gold between each of them, and over all the cross of St. George, gules. In the centre is a representation of the Archangel St. Michael encountering Satan, within a blue circle, inscribed with the motto, AUSPICIUM MELIORIS ÆVI.

THE COLLAR is formed alternately of lions of England, of Maltese crosses, and of the ciphers S M and S G, having in the centre the imperial crown, over two winged lions, passant-guardant, each holding a book, and seven arrows. At the opposite end of the collar are two similar lions. The whole is of gold except the crosses, which are of white enamel, and it is linked together by small gold chains.

THE BADGE is a gold cross of fourteen points of white enamel, edged with gold, having in the centre, on one side, the Archangel St. Michael, encountering Satan, and on the other, St. George on horseback, encountering a dragon, within a blue circle, on which the motto of the Order is inscribed. The Cross is surmounted by the Imperial crown, and is worn by the Knights Grand Cross to the Collar, or to a wide Saxon-blue ribbon, with a scarlet stripe from the right shoulder to the left side.

THE MANTLE is of Saxon-blue satin, lined with scarlet silk, tied with cordons of blue and scarlet silk and gold, and has on the left side the star of a Knight Grand Cross.

THE CHAPEAU is of blue satin, lined with scarlet, and surmounted with white and black ostrich feathers.

THE KNIGHTS COMMANDERS wear the badge suspended to a narrower ribbon from the neck, and have on their left side a star composed of four rays, with a small cross of eight points in saltire, of silver, surmounted by the cross of St. George, gules, and having the same centre as the Star of the Grand Crosses.

THE COMPANIONS wear the small cross of the Order from a still narrower ribbon at the button-hole of their coats.

MOTTO—AUSPICIUM MELIORIS ÆVI.

OFFICERS OF THE ORDER.

Registrar—Sir Albert William Woods, K.C.B., K.C.M.G., Garter King of Arms.
Secretary—Sir William John Cuningham, K.C.S.I.

THE ROYAL VICTORIAN ORDER.

Instituted by Her Majesty Queen Victoria, Empress of India, 21st of April, 1896.

ıE Order consists of the Sovereign, Ordinary Members, and such Honorary Members as the Sovereign, his heirs d successors, shall from time to time appoint; the Members being divided into five classes, and designated spectively:—Knights Grand Cross, Knights Commanders, Commanders, Members of the Fourth Class, and embers of the Fifth Class. The persons to be admitted as Ordinary Members of this Order shall be such rsons, being subjects of the British Crown, as may have rendered extraordinary, or important, or personal, rvices to His Majesty, his heirs and successors, who have merited His Majesty's Royal Favour; and the onorary Members of the several classes shall consist of those Foreign Princes and persons upon whom His ajesty may think fit to confer the honour of being received into the Order.

The Members of the several grades in the Order are to have place and precedence as follows:—The Knights rand Cross next to and immediately after the Knights Grand Commanders of The Most Eminent Order of the dian Empire, and the Knights Commanders next to and immediately after the Knights Commanders of The ost Eminent Order. The Commanders next to and immediately after Knights Bachelors of these Realms. ıe Members of the Fourth Class, after the Companions of the said Most Eminent Order, and the Members of ıe Fifth Class next to and immediately after the eldest sons of Knights Bachelors of these Realms. The number Members is unlimited, and the Anniversary of the Order is the Twentieth day of June of every year, being the y of Her Majesty Queen Victoria's Accession to the Throne of these Realms.

THE BADGE of Knights Grand Cross consists of a white enamelled Maltese cross, of eight points on an oval ntre of crimson enamel the Royal and Imperial Monogram in gold within a blue enamelled circle, thereon the otto of the Order, namely, "VICTORIA," in letters of gold, the circle being surmounted by an Imperial crown amelled in proper colours, the whole suspended from a dark blue riband with a narrow edge on either side of ree stripes, red, white, and red, of the breadth of three inches and three-quarters, passing from the right shoulder the left side.

THE STAR of Knights Grand Cross consists of a silver chipped star of eight points; in the centre, a repre-ntation of the Badge of the First Class of the Order.

The Knights Commanders wear around their necks a riband of the same colours and pattern as that of the ıights Grand Cross, of the breadth of one inch and three-quarters, and pendent therefrom the Badge which of the same pattern as, but of smaller size than, that of a Knight Grand Cross. The Star is composed of a Maltese oss, in silver, with smaller rays issuing from the centre, between the angles of the cross; in the centre, the dge of the Order as before described, with the cross in frosted silver instead of white enamel.

The Commanders wear around their necks the like riband and badge as that appointed for the Knights ımmanders, but are not entitled to wear the Star.

The Members of the Fourth Class wear a badge of the same form and appearance as that appointed for the ımmanders, but of smaller size, pendent to a riband of the same colours, of the breadth of one inch and a arter, attached from the left breast.

The Members of the Fifth Class wear, from the left breast, the same riband and badge as that appointed : the Fourth Class, with the exception that the cross is of frosted silver instead of white enamel.

THE SEAL of the Order is azure, a representation of the badge of the Order impaled with the Royal Arms th the circumscription "The Seal of the Royal Victorian Order."

THE APPOINTMENTS are made by Warrant under the Royal Sign Manual, sealed with the seal of the Order. ıe Sovereign may cancel and annul appointments and restore members.

THE INVESTITURE of Knights Grand Cross, Knights Commanders, and Commanders is performed by the vereign, who may delegate his powers, or dispense with investiture.

The Insignia of the Order are returned on promotion or death.

Knights Grand Cross may bear supporters to their arms and surround their arms with the circle and motto the Order and suspend therefrom a representation of the riband and badge.

Knights Commanders and Commanders may surround their armorial bearings with the circle and motto of ə Order and suspend therefrom a representation of the riband and badge.

Members of the Order may suspend a representation of the riband and badge from the bottom of the ıutcheon bearing their arms.

The Officers of the Order are the Chancellor (the Chamberlain of the Household), who shall keep the Seal, l the Secretary (the Keeper of the Privy Purse), who shall keep the Register of the Royal Order.

THE DISTINGUISHED SERVICE ORDER.

Instituted by Royal Warrant, dated 6th September, 1886.

VICTORIA, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen Defender of the Faith, Empress of India, to all to whom these presents shall come, greeting:

Whereas We have taken into Our Royal consideration that the means of adequately rewarding the distinguished services of Officers in Our Naval and Military Services who have been honourably mentioned in Despatches are limited; now for the purpose of attaining an end so desirable as that of rewarding individual instances of meritorious or distinguished service in war, We have instituted and created and by these presents, for Us, Our Heirs and Successors, do institute and create a new Naval and Military Order of Distinction—to be designated as hereinafter described—which We are desirous should be highly prized by the Officers of Our Naval and Military Services, and We are graciously pleased to make, ordain, and establish the following rules and ordinances for the government of the same, which shall henceforth be inviolably observed and kept:

Firstly. It is ordained, that this Order shall henceforth be styled and designated the "Distinguished Service Order."

Secondly. It is ordained that the Order shall consist of the Sovereign, and of such Members or Companions as We, Our Heirs or Successors, shall appoint.

Thirdly. It is ordained that We, Our Heirs and Successors, Kings and Queens Regnant of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Emperors and Empresses of India, are and for ever shall be Sovereigns of this Order.

Fourthly. It is ordained that no person shall be eligible for this distinction who doth not actually hold, at the time of his nomination, a Commission in Our Navy, in our Land Forces, or Marines, or Our Indian or Colonial Naval or Military Forces, or a Commission in one of the Departments of our Navy or Army, the holder of which is entitled to Honorary or relative Navy or Army rank, nor shall any person be nominated unless his services shall have been marked by the especial mention of his name, by the Admiral or Senior Naval Officer Commanding a Squadron or detached Naval Force, or by the Commander-in-Chief of the Forces in the Field, in Despatches for meritorious or distinguished service in the Field, or before the enemy.

Fifthly. It is ordained that Foreign Officers who have been associated in Naval and Military operations with Our Forces shall be eligible to be Honorary Members of this Order.

Sixthly. It is ordained that when We, Our Heirs and Successors, shall be pleased to appoint any person to be a Member of this Order, such appointment shall be made by Warrant under our Sign Manual, and countersigned by one of Our Principal Secretaries of State.

Seventhly. It is ordained that the decoration of the Order shall be and shall be worn as is hereinafter set forth.

Eighthly. It is ordained that an Officer shall be appointed to this Order, that is to say, a Secretary and Registrar.

Ninthly. It is ordained that the Secretary and Registrar of this Order shall be appointed by Us, Our Heirs and Successors, and shall have the custody of the archives of the Order. He shall attend to the service of the Order, and shall execute such directions as he may receive from Our Principal Secretary of State for War.

Tenthly. It is ordained that this Order shall rank next to and immediately after Our Royal Victorian Order, and that the Companions thereof shall in all places and assemblies whatsoever have place and precedency next to and immediately after the Members of the 4th Class of the Royal Victorian Order, and shall rank among themselves according to the dates of their respective nominations.

Eleventhly. It is ordained that the Badge of the Order, which shall consist of a gold cross, enamelled white, edged gold, having on one side thereof in the centre, within a wreath of laurel enamelled green, the Imperial Crown in gold, upon a red enamelled ground, and on the reverse, within a similar wreath and on a similar red ground, Our Imperial and Royal cypher V.R.I., shall be suspended from the left breast by a red riband edged blue, of one inch in width.

Twelfthly. It is ordained that the names of those upon whom We may be pleased to confer the decoration shall be published in the "London Gazette," and a registry thereof kept in the Office of Our Secretary of State for War.

Lastly. We reserve to Ourself, Our Heirs, and Successors, full power of annulling, altering, abrogating, augmenting, interpreting, or dispensing with these Regulations or any part thereof by a notification under the Sign Manual of the Sovereign of the Order.

Given at Our Court at Balmoral this sixth day of September, in the fiftieth year of Our Reign, and in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

THE ORDER OF MERIT.

MILITARY MEMBERS.

CIVIL MEMBERS.

This Order was instituted by Letters-Patent 23 June, 1902.

STATUTES.

I. It is ordained and enjoined that this Order shall be styled and designated in all Acts, proceedings, and pleadings, "The Order of Merit," as in our said Letters directed, and by no other designation.

II. It is ordained that the said Order shall consist of the Sovereign and one class of Members, as in Our said Letters-Patent is provided.

III. It is ordained that We, Our heirs and successors, Kings or Queens Regnant of this United Kingdom are, and for ever shall be, Sovereigns of this Order, to whom doth and shall belong all power of annulling, interpreting, explaining, or augmenting these and every part of these Statutes.

IV. It is ordained that the Ordinary Members of the Order shall not exceed the number of twenty-four.

V. It is ordained that the persons to be admitted as Ordinary Members of this Order shall be such persons being subjects of Our Crown, as may have rendered exceptionally meritorious service in Our Navy and Our Army, or who may have rendered exceptionally meritorious service towards the advancement of Art, Literature and Science.

VI. It is ordained that the Honorary Members of the Order shall consist of Foreign persons upon whom We may think fit to confer the honour of being received into the Order, and that the number of such Honorary Members may consist of as many Foreign persons as We, Our heirs and successors, shall think fit to appoint.

VII. It is ordained that when We, Our heirs and successors, shall be pleased to nominate and appoint any person to be a Member of this Order, such appointment shall be made by Warrant under Our Royal Sign Manual, and sealed with the Seal of the Order.

VIII. It is ordained that the Insignia of the Sovereign of the said Order shall be of the same material and fashion as are hereinafter appointed for the Members of the Order, save only with those alterations which distinguish Our Royal Dignity.

IX. It is ordained that the Members of this Order shall wear around their necks the Badge of the Order, which shall consist of a Cross of red and blue enamel of eight points, having, within a laurel wreath upon a centre of blue enamel, the motto of the Order, that is to say: "For Merit," in letters of gold; on the reverse, within a laurel wreath, upon a centre of blue enamel, our Royal and Imperial cypher in gold (with the addition of two silver swords with gold hilts, placed saltirewise between the angles of the Cross, to be worn by such Members as may be appointed for distinguished and meritorious services in Our Navy and Our Army), the whole being surmounted by Our Imperial Crown enamelled in proper colours, and suspended by a parti-coloured riband of garter blue and crimson of the breadth of two inches.

X. It is ordained that upon the nomination of any person to be a Member of this Order, he shall be invested with the Insignia of his dignity in the Order by Us, Our heirs and successors, and that on the day of the investiture the person to be invested shall be introduced into the presence of the Sovereign by the Officer of the Order in attendance bearing the proper Insignia of the Order, when the Sovereign shall proceed to invest him with the Ensigns of the Order with the Riband and Badge.

XI. It is further ordained that it shall be competent for Us, Our heirs and successors, by a Warrant or Warrants under Our Sign Manual, countersigned by one of Our Principal Secretaries of State, and sealed with the Seal of this Order, in any case to authorize some distinguished Officer in Our service, or other person to perform in Our name, and on Our behalf, the ceremony of investing Members with the Insignia of their dignity, or to permit the ceremony of investiture to be dispensed with. And We reserve to Ourselves, Our heirs and successors, by Our or Their Warrant or Warrants, as aforesaid, to permit and authorize the person or persons not invested by Us to wear the Insignia, and enjoy the privileges appertaining to their dignity.

XII. It is ordained that for the greater honour and dignity of the Members of this Order, it shall be lawful for the Members of this Order to suspend a representation of their Riband and Badge from the bottom of the escocheon containing their armorial bearings.

XIII. It is ordained that the Seal of this Order shall have engraved thereon as follows, that is to say: upon a white field, a representation of the Badge of the Order proper, impaled with Our Royal Arms, with the following circumscription, "The Seal of the Order of Merit," and that the Statutes of the said Order shall be sealed by and with the same.

XIV. It is ordained that the Twenty-sixth day of June every year shall henceforth be taken and deemed to be the anniversary of the institution of this Order.

XV. It is ordained that the following Officer shall be appointed to this Order, that is to say a Secretary and Registrar.

XVI. It is ordained that the Comptroller of the Lord Chamberlain's Department of Our Household, for the time being, shall be the Secretary and Registrar of the said Order, and shall wear around his neck pendant to a chain of gold a like Badge to that appointed for Members of the Order, with the addition of two silver pens, saltirewise between the angles of the Cross.

To his custody shall be confided the Seal of the said Order, which he shall affix, or cause to be affixed, to all Statutes and other documents or instruments connected therewith. He shall, moreover, perform such duties as may be directed by the Sovereign or by these Statutes. He shall write all letters connected with the service of the Order: he shall keep full lists of the Members of the Order. He shall carefully record all proceedings relative to the said Order that may take place, and he shall faithfully enter such proceedings in the Register of the Order, as well as all documents which may be transmitted to him for that purpose. We are further pleased to ordain that the Chancery of the said Order, wherein a record of all proceedings connected therewith shall be deposited and preserved, shall be in the Office of the Lord Chamberlain of Our Household.

Lastly, We reserve to Ourself, Our heirs and successors, full power of annulling, altering, abrogating, augmenting, interpreting, or dispensing with these Statutes and Regulations, or any part thereof, by a Notification under the Sign Manual of the Sovereign of the Order.

THE KAISAR-I-HIND MEDAL.

THIS Decoration was instituted to reward important and useful services rendered to Her Majesty, Queen Victoria, in Her Indian Empire in the advancement of the public interests of the said Empire, and was designated as "The Kaisar-i-Hind Medal for Public Service in India."

It was ordained that any person without distinction of race, occupation, position, or sex, shall be eligible for this Decoration who shall have distinguished himself (or herself) by important and useful service in the advancement of the public interest in India.

It was ordained that there shall be two classes of the Decoration to be styled respectively "The Kaisar-i-Hind Medal for Public Service in India" of the First Class and "The Kaisar-i-Hind Medal for Public Service in India" of the Second Class.

It was ordained that awards of the Medal of the First Class shall be made by Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, by Warrant under Her Sign Manual, and countersigned by One of Her Principal Secretaries of State, and such awards shall only be made on a recommendation to Her Majesty by Her Secretary of State for India.

It was ordained that awards of the Medal of the Second Class shall be made by Her Majesty's Governor-General of India for the time being.

It was ordained that the Medal shall consist of an oval-shaped Badge or Decoration,—in gold for the First Class and in silver for the Second Class,—with Her Majesty's Royal Cypher in the centre on one side and on the reverse the words "Kaisar-i-Hind, for Public Service in India," and that it shall be suspended on the left breast by a dark blue ribbon.

It was ordained that the names of those persons to whom a Medal of either class may be awarded shall be published in the "Gazette of India," and in the Gazette of the Local Government under the jurisdiction of which the service was rendered, and shall be entered in all Civil and Official lists, and that a registry of such names shall be kept in the Office of the Home Department of the Government of India.

It was ordained that if any one, after having received either of the Medals, again renders such service as, if he had not received such Medal, would have entitled him to it, such further service shall be recorded by a bar attached to the ribbon by which the Medal is suspended; and for every such additional service an additional bar may be added.

In order to make such additional provisions as shall effectually preserve pure this honourable decoration, it was ordained that if any person on whom the Medal of the First Class is conferred be guilty of any crime or disgraceful conduct which in Her Majesty's Judgment disqualifies him for the same, his name shall, by an especial Warrant under Her Sign Manual, to be countersigned by one of Her Principal Secretaries of State, be forthwith erased from the lists of those upon whom the said Decoration shall have been conferred, and his Medal forfeited and returned to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors; and in the case of those who have been awarded Medals of the Second Class, such erasure of their names from the lists of those upon whom the said Decoration shall have been conferred and forfeiture of their Medals shall be effected under the Order of Her Majesty's Governor-General of India for the time being, to whom their Medals shall be returned. And every person to whom the said Medal is given shall, before receiving the same, enter into an engagement to return the same if his name shall be erased as aforesaid.

Provided that Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, shall at all times have power to restore the Medal of the First Class to any person who may have been deprived of it when circumstances render such restoration just and expedient, and that in like circumstances Her Majesty's Governor-General of India for the time being shall have power by his Order to restore the Medal of the Second Class to any person who may have been deprived of it.

The Victoria Cross.

This Decoration was instituted by a Warrant under the Royal Sign Manual, bearing date January 29, 1856, for the purpose of rewarding individual acts of bravery, performed by Officers of the lower grades in the Naval and Military Services, or by Warrant and Petty Officers, Seamen, and Marines in the Navy, and Non-Commissioned Officers and Soldiers in the Army. Any additional Act of Bravery is recorded by a Bar being attached to the Ribbon by which the Cross is suspended. A Pension of £10 per annum is bestowed upon the non-commissioned officers and men who receive the Cross; and a further Pension of £5 a year is given with each Bar.

By another Warrant, bearing date December 13, 1858, it was declared, that Non-Military persons, who, as Volunteers, had borne arms against the Mutineers in India should be considered eligible to receive the decoration of the Victoria Cross, subject to the rules and ordinances already made for the government thereof.

The distinction consists of a Maltese Cross of Bronze, with the Royal Crest in the centre, and underneath which an escroll bearing the inscription "For Valour." On the reverse side of the Bar the Rank and Name of the Recipient is engraved, and on the Cross the name and date of the Action or Campaign in which the honour was won. The Cross is worn suspended from the left breast by a blue ribbon for the Navy, and by a red ribbon for the Army.

This List contains the names of Officers still serving, of Officers retired, and of Non-Commissioned Officers and Men drawing the V.C. annuity.

The complete List of those upon whom the distinction was conferred from the date of the institution of the decoration to December, 1879, was given in the Edition of this Work for 1880.

IMPERIAL SERVICE ORDER.

STATUTES.

EDWARD R. and I.

EDWARD THE SEVENTH, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions Beyond the Seas, King, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India, to all to whom these psesents shall come, Greeting:

Whereas, We are desirous of recognising more fully than has hitherto been possible the faithful and meritorious services rendered to Us by Members of the Civil Services of the various parts of Our Empire, We do by these presents, for Us, Our Heirs, and Successors, institute and create a new Civil Order of Distinction—to be designated as hereinafter described—and We are graciously pleased to make, ordain, and establish the following rules and ordinances for the government of the same.—

Firstly.—It is ordained that this Order shall henceforth be styled and designated "The Imperial Service Order."

Secondly.—It is ordained that the Order shall consist of the Sovereign, the Prince of Wales, and such Companions as We, our Heirs or Successors, shall appoint.

Thirdly.—It is ordained that We, Our Heirs and Successors, Kings and Queens Regnant of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions Beyond the Seas, Emperors and Empresses of India, are and for ever shall be Sovereigns of this Order.

Fourthly.—It is ordained that only the members of the administrative or clerical branches of Our Civil Services shall be eligible for the distinction of Companions of this Order.

Fifthly.—It is ordained that the number of Companions of the Order shall not exceed four hundred and twenty-five, of whom two hundred and fifty shall belong to Our Home Civil Service, and one hundred and seventy-five to the Civil Services of Our Colonies and Protectorates.

Sixthly.—It is ordained that no person shall be eligible to be a Companion of the Order whose name has not been laid before Us, Our Heirs and Successors, by one of Our or Their Principal Secretaries of State, and who has not at the time of his nomination rendered at least twenty-five years' meritorious service in the United Kingdom. Provided that in a Colony or Protectorate which, under the Pension Acts or Regulations applying to that Colony or Protectorate, is recognised as unhealthy, the minimum period of service shall be sixteen years. Provided also that it shall at any time be competent to Us, our Heirs and Successors, to appoint specially to the Order persons who, not having completed the aforesaid periods of service, have rendered such eminently meritorious service as to qualify them in Our opinion to become recipients of this distinction.

Seventhly.—It is ordained that when We, Our Heirs and Successors, shall be pleased to appoint any person to be a Companion of the Order, such appointment shall be made by Warrant under Our Sign Manual and countersigned by one of Our Principal Secretaries of State.

Eighthly.—It is ordained that the Decoration to be worn by Companions of the Order shall be a Badge or Medallion of gold and enamel, bearing on one side Our Imperial and Royal Cypher, and on the reverse "For Faithful Service," both to be executed in dark blue enamel on a plaque or shield of gold, surrounded by a wreath of laurel, surmounted by the Imperial Crown.

Ninthly.—It is ordained that the Decoration shall be worn on the left breast suspended by a ribbon of one inch in width.

Tenthly.—It is ordained that the names of those upon whom We are pleased to confer the Decoration shall be published in the "London Gazette."

Eleventhly.—It is ordained that Companions of the Order shall have the privilege of adding the letters "I.S.O." after their names.

Twelfthly.—It is ordained that Members of any Order of Knighthood shall, if otherwise qualified, be eligible to become Companions of this Order, and that Companions of this Order shall in no way be debarred from becoming thereafter Members of any Order of Knighthood for which their services may qualify them.

Thirteenthly.—It is ordained that an officer shall be appointed to the Order who shall be styled "Secretary and Registrar," and who shall be ex-officio a Companion of the Order.

Fourteenthly.—It is ordained that the Secretary and Registrar of this Order shall be appointed by Us, Our Heirs and Successors, and shall have the custody of the Archives of the Order, which shall be kept in the Office of Our Secretary of State for the Home Department. He shall attend to the service of the Order and shall execute such directions as he may receive from Our Principal Secretaries of State.

Fifteenthly.—It is ordained that those Members of Our Civil Services who are not eligible for appointment as Companions of this Order may, on retirement from Our said Services after not less than twenty-five years of meritorious service in the United Kingdom, or not less than sixteen years of such service in a Colony or Protectorate which, under the Pension Acts or Regulations applying to that Colony or Protectorate, is recognised as unhealthy, be awarded a Medal to be designated "The Imperial Service Medal," provided that no such Medal shall be granted except on the recommendation of one of Our Principal Secretaries of State. Provided also that it shall be competent to Us, Our Heirs and Successors, to confer the Medal upon not more than five Civil servants in each year, who have retired after less than twenty-five years' services, should special circumstances in Our or Their opinion justify the grant.

Sixteenthly.—It is ordained that the Imperial Service Medal shall be of silver and of a design similar to that of the Badge of the Companions of the aforesaid Imperial Service Order, and shall be similarly worn.

Seventeenthly.—It is ordained that the names of those persons to whom the Imperial Service Medal shall be granted shall be duly published in the "London Gazette."

Lastly.—We reserve to Ourselves, Our Heirs and Successors, full power of annulling, altering, abrogating, augmenting, interpreting, or dispensing with these Regulations, or any part thereof, by a notification under the Sign Manual of the Sovereign of the Order.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this eighth day of August, in the year of Our Lord nineteen hundred and two, and the second year of Our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command,

CHARLES T. RITCHIE.

THE VOLUNTEER OFFICERS' DECORATION.

Instituted by Royal Warrant, dated 25th July, 1892.

VICTORIA, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, to all to whom these presents shall come, Greeting:

Whereas it is Our Royal Desire to reward the long and meritorious services of Officers of proved capacity in Our Volunteer Force; Now for the purpose of attaining this end, We have instituted, constituted and created, and by these presents for Us, Our Heirs and Successors, do institute, constitute and create a new Decoration which We are desirous should be highly prized by the Officers of Our Volunteer Force; and We are graciously pleased to make, ordain and establish the following rules and ordinances for the government of the same, which shall from henceforth be observed and kept:—

Firstly.—It is Ordained that the Decoration shall be styled and designated "The Volunteer Officers' Decoration," and shall consist of an Oak Wreath in silver, tied with gold, having in the centre the Royal Cipher and Crown in gold.

Secondly.—It is Ordained that the Decoration shall be suspended from the left breast by a green riband of one inch and a half in width from a silver Oak bar-brooch.

Thirdly.—It is ordained that the Decoration may be worn by Us, Our Heirs and Successors, Kings and Queens Regnant of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and it shall be competent for Us, Our Heirs and Successors, to confer the Decoration upon any of the Princes of the Royal Family of Great Britain and Ireland.

Fourthly.—It is ordained that no person shall be eligible for this Decoration nor be nominated thereto unless he is or was a Commissioned Officer and has served twenty years in Our Volunteer Force—is recommended by the Commanding Officer of the Corps in which he has served—and is duly certified by the District Military Authorities in which the Corps is located, as having been an efficient and thoroughly capable Officer, in every way deserving of such a decoration; Provided nevertheless and We do hereby declare that half of any time during which an Officer of Our Volunteer Force may have served in the ranks of our said Force shall reckon as qualifying service towards the twenty years required as aforesaid.

Fifthly.—It is ordained that the names of those upon whom We may be pleased to confer the Decoration shall be published in the "London Gazette," and a registry thereof kept in the office of Our Principal Secretary of State for War.

Sixthly.—In order to make such additional provision as shall effectually preserve pure this most honourable distinction, it is ordained, that if any person on whom it shall be conferred be convicted of any act derogatory to his honour as an Officer and gentleman, his name shall forthwith be erased from the registry of individuals upon whom the said Decoration shall have been conferred, by an Order from Us under Our Royal Sign Manual; and a notification thereof shall be duly published in the "London Gazette."

Lastly.—We reserve to Ourselves, Our Heirs and Successors, full power of annulling, altering, abrogating, augmenting, interpreting, or dispensing with these regulations, or any part thereof, by a Notification under Our Royal Sign Manual.

Given at Our Court at Osborne, the twenty-fifth day of July, in the fifty-sixth year of Our Reign, and in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

The Albert Medal.

The Albert Medal was instituted by Royal Warrant, dated March 7, 1866, for the purpose of rewarding, by a mark of Royal favour, the many daring and heroic actions performed by mariners and others to prevent loss of life, and to save the lives of those who are in danger of perishing by reason of the wrecks and perils of the Sea.

Under this Warrant the Medal was confined to one Class, but it was found that many acts were performed which were worthy of reward, but which were not of a character sufficiently daring and heroic to bring them under the terms of the Warrant establishing the Decoration. The Warrant above mentioned was therefore revoked, and a new one issued on April 12, 1867, by which two new Decorations, styled respectively The Albert Medal of the First Class and The Albert Medal of the Second Class, were instituted.

In April, 1877, by another Warrant, these Decorations were extended to cases of gallantry in preventing loss of life from accidents in mines, on railways, and at fires, and other perils on shore.

The Decoration of the First Class for Saving Life at Sea consists of a gold oval-shaped Badge, enamelled in dark blue, with a Monogram, composed of the letters V and A, interlaced with an Anchor, erect in gold, surrounded with a Garter in bronze, inscribed in raised letters of gold, "For Gallantry in Saving Life at Sea," and surmounted by a representation of the Crown of H.R.H. the lamented Prince Consort, and suspended from a dark blue riband of an inch and three-eighths in width, with four white longitudinal stripes. The Decoration of the Second Class consists of the like-shaped enamelled Badge, except that in this Class it is entirely worked in bronze, instead of gold and bronze, and suspended from a dark blue riband of five-eighths of an inch in width, with two white longitudinal stripes.

The Decoration of the First Class for Saving Life on Land consists of a gold oval-shaped Badge, enamelled in crimson, with a Monogram, composed of the letters V and A, erect in gold, surrounded with a Garter in bronze, inscribed in raised letters of gold, "For Gallantry in Saving Life on Land," and surmounted by a representation of the Crown of H.R.H. the lamented Prince Consort, and suspended from a crimson riband of an inch and three-eighths in width, with four white longitudinal stripes. The Decoration of the Second Class is a similar shaped enamelled Badge, except that it is entirely worked in bronze, instead of gold and bronze, and suspended from a crimson riband of five-eighths of an inch in width, with two white longitudinal stripes.

The Medals are worn suspended from the left breast, and the names of those upon whom they are conferred are published in the "London Gazette."

Every additional act of bravery is recorded by a Bar being attached to the riband by which the Medal is suspended.

The Royal Red Cross.

HIS Decoration was instituted by Royal Warrant, dated 23 April, 1883, for the purpose of rewarding service endered by certain persons in nursing the Sick and Wounded of the Army and Navy. Under this Royal Warrant, the following are the rules and ordinances:—

The Decoration to be styled and designated "The Royal Red Cross," and to consist of a Cross, enamelled crimson, edged with gold, having on the Arms thereof the words Faith, Hope, Charity, with the date of the institution of the Decoration; the centre having thereon Queen Victoria's Effigy. On the reverse side Her Majesty's Royal and Imperial Cypher and Crown shown in relief on the centre.

The Cross to be attached to a dark blue riband edged red, of one inch in width, tied in a bow and worn on the left shoulder.

The Decoration to be worn by the Queen Regnant, the Queen Consort, or the Queen Dowager of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and by any of the Princesses of the Royal Family of Great Britain and Ireland on whom it may be conferred.

The Decoration may be conferred upon any Ladies, whether subjects or foreign persons, who may be recommended to the Sovereign's notice by the Secretary of State for War for special exertions in providing for the nursing, or for attending to, sick and wounded soldiers and sailors.

This Decoration may be conferred upon any Nursing Sisters, whether subjects or foreign persons, who may be recommended to the Sovereign's notice by the Secretary of State for War, or, as the case may be, by the First Lord of the Admiralty through the said Secretary of State, for special devotion and competency which they may have displayed in their nursing duties with the Army in the Field, or in the Naval and Military Hospitals.

The names of those upon whom the Decoration may be conferred shall be published in the "London Gazette," and a registry thereof kept in the office of the Secretary of State for War.

If any person on whom such distinction shall be conferred shall by her conduct become unworthy of it, her name shall be erased from the register of those upon whom the said Decoration shall have been conferred, and may be restored if such restoration should be justified by the circumstances of the case.

THE GRAND PRIORY OF THE ORDER OF THE HOSPITAL OF ST. JOHN OF JERUSALEM IN ENGLAND.

THE ORDER OF ST. JOHN OF JERUSALEM was introduced into England in the 12th century, and in 1330, when the Order was divided into eight separate languages, England occupied the sixth place. In 1830 it was decided to revive the confraternity in England in conformity with the reformed religion, for the purpose of performing ambulance and other charitable work, and in 1888 a Royal Charter of Incorporation was granted to them.

By Royal command the Badges of the Order may be worn generally in England, but the membership of the Order does not confer any rank, style, title, or precedence.

DE HOCHEPIED.

JOHN MELVILL DE HOCHEPIED LARPENT, BARON DE HOCHEPIED, Baron and Magnat, of the Kingdom of Hungary, b. at Poonah, 17 Sept. 1860; s. his father as 9th Baron, 4 Aug. 1887; m. 3 Nov. 1897, Elizabeth Cowill, dau. of George Withycombe, of Widecombe-in-the-Moor, Devon, and has,

ELBERT ADRIAN WILLIAM, b. 5 Dec. 1900.

Clarissa Catherine, b. 26 Sept. 1898.

Lineage.

The title of Baron and Magnat was conferred on this family by letters patent bearing the sign-manual of his Majesty LEOPOLD I., Emperor of Germany, under the great seal of the kingdom of Hungary, given at Vienna, the 8th April, 1704, on Daniel John de Hochepied, with limitation to his issue, and by royal licence, dated 27 Sept. 1819, the 6th and 7th Barons and their heirs male were authorised to avail themselves of the said honour, and to bear the title in this country.

This family, according to the aforesaid royal diploma, in which are cited certain documents dated in the year 1210, had been at that period long established in the Spanish Netherlands, and is supposed, by Jean le Carpenter, in his History, to have been a branch of the family of Boistrencourt, in the Cambresis, where, in the year 1100, it had been much distinguished, and had attained to the highest and most conspicuous stations of dignity, civil as well as ecclesiastical.

NICHOLAS DE HOCHEPIED, in the year 1575, was appointed minister and ambassador from the States-General of Holland, to several electors and potentates in Germany.

DANIEL JOHN DE HOCHEPIED, being minister from the States-General of the Netherlands at the Ottoman Porte in 1698, distinguished himself in the negotiations which terminated in the peace of Carlowitz, 26 Jan. 1698; and having likewise by his virtues and influence obtained the liberation of many Christian slaves from Turkish servitude, the Emperor LEOPOLD conferred upon him and his descendants, male and female, the title of Baron and Magnat of the Kingdom of Hungary. He m. Clarissa Catherine, Countess Collyer, and was father of

I. Ursula Katherine. II. Cecila Mabel Lucinda.

Lineage.

THOMAS DIMSDALE, 1ST BARON DIMSDALE, M.D., of The Priory, in the co. of Hertford, b. 29 May, 1712, member for the borough of Hertford in two successive parliaments, was grandson of Robert Dimsdale, who accompanied William Penn to America in 1684, and 4th son of Sir John Dimsdale, Knt. of Theydon Gernon, in Essex, by Susanna, dau. of Thomas Bowyer, of Halbury Hall, Herts. Dr. Dimsdale, in 1745, made a voluntary and gratuitous offer of his services as assistant to the medical staff of the army sent to the north, under the command of the Duke of Cumberland, to suppress the Scotch rebellion; and he continued in the service until after the surrender of Carlisle to the king's forces, when he received the thanks of his royal highness the commander-in-chief. The ample fortune Dr. Dimsdale enjoyed had induced him to retire for some years from the practice of his profession, when his high reputation in the art of inoculating for the small-pox having reached the Empress CATHERINE of Russia, he was especially invited, in 1762, by her majesty to the Court of St. Petersburg, for the purpose of inoculating herself and the grand duke, her son, which invitation he accepted and acquitted himself so much to the satisfaction of his imperial patients, that her majesty rewarded his services with the appointment of actual councillor of state, and physician to her imperial majesty, with an annuity of £500 per annum, conferring upon him, by letters patent at St. Petersburgh 13 Feb. 1769, a Barony of the Russian empire, with the title of "Honourable" attached, to be borne by him and the eldest of his lawful descendants in succession. She likewise gave him the sum of £10,000 sterling, with £2,000 for the expenses of his journey, and presented him with a miniature of herself and the grand duke, richly set with diamonds. His 2nd son, Nathaniel, who had accompanied him to the Russian Court, had conferred upon him, at the same time, a similar dignity, with similar limitations. Her imperial majesty was further pleased to grant to both father and son, and their lawful descendants, permission to add to their family arms, a wing of the displayed black eagle of the Russian imperial coat, on a gold shield placed in the centre, with the usual helmet over the shield, surmounted by the baron's coronet. A patent in accordance was ordered by the empress to be made out, embellished with her majesty's portrait and other splendid ornaments, and delivered to the Barons Dimsdale. Baron Dimsdale m. 1st, Mary, only child of Nathaniel Brassey, of Radford House, Herts, but by that lady, who d. 1744, had no issue. Lineage.

The family of Kearney, Kearnie, O'Kearney, or O'Cearnaigh, as it has at different eras been written, is of ancient Milesian descent, and held extensive possession in the southern counties, of Ireland long before the English invasion. Kearney Castle, Cashel, erected in 1199, 1 King JOHN, one of the Towers of which is still in good preservation, and occupied as a residence, together with a large part of the city of Cashel, and extensive territories in the neighbourhood, belonged to the family, and were confiscated at various periods by the English Government in Ireland. They were hereditary keepers of "St. Patrick's Crozier," called also "Kearney Crux." In a list of tithes taken from the Registry of Cashel, 1643, on record in Dublin, appears the item, "£10 paid to Mr. Kearney for St. Patrick's Rights, as of ancient custom throughout the Province." The crozier was given up by the dau. of Kearney of Fethard, to the then Archbishop of Cashel, and is incorporated in his pastoral staff with an inscription setting forth these facts. They were staunch adherents to the House of Stuart, and amongst "The forty-nine officers"—"Enrolment of the adjudications in favour of the A.D. 1649 officers who served CHARLES I. and CHARLES II. in the wars before Cromwell came to Ireland"—we find the names of James, John, Patrick, Paul, Thomas and William Kearney. We find still existing in the northern transept of the Cathedral, forming part of the magnificent ruins of the "Rock of Cashel," a magnificent tomb of the Kearney family, and in the nave the tomb of Nicholas O'Kearney, the owner of vast estates in the neighbourhood, who d. 3 Sept. 1460.

AONGUS, brother of Eochaidh Ball-dearg, No. 24 (5th century) on the Kings of Thomond (O'Brien) pedigree was ancestor of O'Cearnaigh (Chasil), anglicised O'Kearney, Kearny, and Kearney. Fourth in descent from this Aongus, his great-great-grandson was Cernach (The Victorious), or O'Cernaigh (Chasil), 98th of the Thomond line (7th century).

The pedigree of John Kearney, b. in Galway, 1688, on record in Ulster Office, sets forth that Donehnall, or Daniel Kearney of Cashel, nephew of Nicholas No. 117 of the Thomond pedigree (81st in descent from Milesius), had issue, LONGUEÜIL.

REGINALD CHARLES D'IBERVILLE GRANT, BARON DE LONGUEÜIL of Longueüil, in the Province of Quebec, Canada, b. 24 Jan. 1856; m. 17 Feb. 1891, Kate Isobel, dau. of John Church, of Carfin, Lanark, and widow of W. H. Burrowes. He s. his half-brother as 8th Baron, 1898.

This title of nobility was granted by LOUIS XIV., King of France, by letters patent dated 26 Jan. 1700, to CHARLES LE MOYNE, of Canada, and was recognised by Her Majesty Queen VICTORIA, 4 Dec. 1880. At the date of the grant Canada formed part of the Dominion of France, but when the recognition was accorded, it was a Colony of Great Britain and Ireland.

Lineage.

The first settler in Canada, in 1641, was CHARLES LE MOYNE DE LONGUEÜIL. His eldest son,

CHARLES, 1st Baron de Longueüil, a distinguished military commander, was the eldest son of Charles Le Moyne, of Longueüil, and his wife, Dame Catherine Primot. He was b. 1656, received the Cross of St. Louis, and was further created by LOUIS XIV., in requital of his eminent services in Canada (he had been wounded in the siege of Quebec and in the war against the Iroquois), a BARON of France, and had his lordship of Longueüil, in Canada, erected into a barony, with limitation to his descendants male and female. He m. 1st, Mademoiselle Claude Elizabeth Souart d'Adocourt, and 2ndly, 17 Sept. 1727, Marie Marguerite le Gardeur de Tilly, widow of M. Pierre de St. Our. By his first wife he had several children, and also by his second. The youngest son, PAUL JOSEPH LE MOYNE, known as the Chevalier de Longueüil, a knight of St. Louis, b. 17 Sept. 1701, gained great distinction by his military services. He m. 1728, Marie Geneviève, dau. of Capt. Pierre Joybert de Soulanges, and d. 12 May, 1778, leaving a dau., Marie Geneviève, wife of the Chevalier de Beaujeu, and one son, Joseph Dominique Emanuel, Seigneur de Soulanges, and of Nouvelle Longueüil, who became inspector-general of militia, colonel of the royal Canadian regiment, and legislative councillor under Lord Dorchester. Charles, 1st Baron de Longueüil, was appointed governor of Montreal in 1724, and d. 7 June, 1729, being buried with great pomp at Villemarie. His son and heir (by his first wife),

CHARLES LE MOYNE, 2nd Baron de Longueüil, b. 18 Oct. 1687, became eventually governor at Montreal, and received the cross of St. Louis. He m. 29 April, 1728, Mademoiselle Catherine Charlotte de Grey; d. 17 Jan. 1755, and was s. by his son,

CHARLES JACQUES LE MOYNE, 3rd Baron de Longueüil, knight of St. Louis, b. at the Castle of Longueüil, 26 July, 1724; m. 7 Jan. 1754, Mademoiselle Marie Anne Fleury d'Eschambault, and was killed in action, 27 Sept. 1755, leaving a dau. and heiress,

MARIE CHARLES JOSEPH, Baroness de Longueüil in her own right, b. 1756; m. 7 May, 1781, Capt. David Alexander Grant, 84th regt., eldest son of David Grant, of Blairfindy, Scotland, and d. 17 Jan. 1841, leaving issue,

I. CHARLES WILLIAM, 5th Baron de Longueüil.
II. William, capt. 71st highlanders, d. of wound received at the battle of Waterloo.
I. Elizabeth, m. to Charles de Montenach.

The elder son,

CHARLES WILLIAM GRANT, 5th Baron de Longueüil, b. 1782; m. 1813, Caroline, eldest dau. of General Coffin, and niece of Admiral Sir Isaac Coffin, Bart., and d. 5 July, 1848, having had issue,

I. CHARLES IRWIN, his successor.
I. Charlotte Catherine, m. to J. Antisell Allen.

The son and heir,

CHARLES IRWIN GRANT, 6th Baron de Longueüil, b. 1 April, 1815; m. 1st, 1842, Harriet, 4th dau. of Frind Cregoe Colmore, of Moor End, co. Gloucester (which lady d. at Montreal 1847), and had issue,

I. CHARLES COLMORE, 7th Baron de Longueüil.
II. David Alexander, b. 2 Aug. 1845, d. at Quebec, 1847.

He m. 2ndly, Anna Katrina, dau. of Louis Trapmann, of Charleston, Carolina, and by her had issue,

III. REGINALD CHARLES D'IBERVILLE, 8th and present Baron.
IV. John Charles de Bienville, b. 1861; m. 1886, Mary, dau. of Joseph Barron, and has issue,
1 Ronald Charles, b. 1887.
2 John Joseph Charles, b. 1888.
I. Fanny, b. 1850; m. 1st, 1879, Thomas MacCarty; and 2ndly, 1889, M. George Falret de Tuite, 18th French Infantry, and has issue by her first marriage.
II. Hilda, b. 1852.
III. Olga, b. 1855.
IV. Ethel, b. 1857.

The Baron d. 26 Feb. 1879, and was s. by his eldest son,

CHARLES COLMORE GRANT, 7TH BARON DE LONGUEÜIL, b. 13 April, 1844; m. 1878, Mary (Birchwood, Pitlochry, N.B.), 3rd dau. of the late Thomas Wayne, of Glandare, Aberdare, and d. s. p. 13 Dec. 1898.

In 1880 the Baron claimed a royal recognition of his right to the barony of Longueüil. By the treaty of Quebec the sovereignty of Canada passed from the Kings of France to the Kings of Great Britain, but with a reservation that all rights and privileges "of what kind soever" should be reserved and secured to all individuals of French descent to which they had been entitled under the previous régime. Under this clause Her Majesty was graciously pleased to recognise the claim of Charles Colmore Grant, to the title of Baron de Longueüil, of Longueüil, in the province of Quebec, Canada.

Creation—Baron de Longueüil, of Longueüil, in the province of Quebec, Canada, 1700, with remainder to descendants, male and female, or by tenure.

METAXA-ANZOLATO.

ANDREA RUSHOUT NORTHWICK PRESCOD, 8th COUNT METAXÀ, b. 23 March, 1844; m. 14 Nov. 1871, Louisa Elizabeth, eldest dau. of Thomas White, of 53, Portland Place, W., Wateringbury Hall, near Maidstone, Congelow, near Yalding, Kent, and Ryarsh Place, West Malling, and by her (who d. 1896) has issue, ANDREA FRANCIS ALBERT COCHRANE (Count), sub-lieut. R.N.R. (Rosenheim, Bonchurch, I. of Wight), b. 13 June, 1874; m. 5 Dec. 1900, Ruth, youngest dau. of the late Henry M. Anketell-Jones, of Bellevue Park, Dublin.

Louisa Evelyne Selina Winton Northwick (Countess for life).

Lineage.

The Metaxà family originally came from Cephalonia, one of the Ionian Islands, and having been elevated to the dignity of Counts by the Venetian Republic, had, for 200 years, been the most powerful and influential house in the island.

When the war of Greek independence broke out, Count Andrea (after whom Count Jean Baptiste's eldest son is named) was among the first to join the national movement, and in 1821, appeared at the head of a body of troops, raised at his own expense. To enable him to do this, he sold his patrimony and broke up his quiet home in order to expose his life to the gallant struggle in which he fought side by side with the deliverers of Greece. His disinterested conduct and military success, especially in the affairs of 1822, gained for him the esteem and confidence of the revolutionary chiefs, and in the same year he was deputed by the provisional government to represent them in the Congress at Verona. Under Capo d'Istria and his brother the Count Augustine, his influence increased so much, that on the latter's resignation, he was chosen to the vacant place in the Administrative Commission of the Seven, from 1832 to 1833. Under the Bavarian rule he served his country in foreign missions; in 1856 was appointed minister at Constantinople, which post he occupied until the rupture of diplomatic relations between Turkey and Greece, in consequence of the events that took place in Epirus and Thessaly.

JEAN BAPTISTE METAXÀ, was a Count of the powerful Venetian Republic. This title (with many privileges) was conferred upon Capt. Anzolo Metaxà and all his male descendants in perpetuum (by Franciscus Mauriceno), on 12 July, 1691, for his eminent and valorous military achievements and political services, rendered to the Venetian Empire, in the Ionian Islands, Rumelia and Livadia, having raised several thousand men, at his personal expense, to support the Venetian Empire. The family of Metaxà also distinguished themselves in favour of the freedom of Greece in 1821, and up to the present period hold important appointments under the government. The title of "Counts," according to the original grant of the Venetian Empire, was recognized by the British Government, in the United States of the Ionian Islands, on 3 June, 1840.

This title of Count descends by inheritance; even the daughters of a count have the right to assume the title of Countess, but it is not inherited by their descendants.

JEAN BAPTISTE, 7th COUNT METAXÀ, became naturalized on 30 Nov. 1846. He was b. 24 May, 1806; m. 30 Oct. 1841, Selina Jane Rancliffe, only surviving child of the late Capt. Richard Barrow, 1st King's dragoon guards, granddau. of the late Sir Thomas Parkyns, Bart. of Bunny Park, co. Notts, cousin of the late Lord Rancliffe and the Princess de Polignac, and by her (who d. 6 Feb. 1869) had issue, Lineage.

SIR CHARLES NAPIER (see ante, NAPIER, BARON), Count Cape St. Vincent, and Grandee of the 1st class in Portugal; K.C.B.; Knight Grand Cross of the Order of the Tower and Sword of Portugal; Knight of the Orders of Maria Theresa of Austria, of the Red Eagle of Prussia, and of St. George of Russia; rear-admiral of the royal navy; b. 6 March, 1786; m. Eliza, dau. of George Younghusband, and widow of Edward Elers, lieut. R.N., by whom he had an only dau.,

ELOISE FANNY, present countess.

Sir Charles Napier distinguished himself by a long and gallant career. In the French war, he did many acts of seamanlike daring and success. During an interval of inactivity, he accepted the command of the fleet of Donna MARIA, Queen of Portugal, and by his victories, was the means of placing her on the Portuguese throne. In reward he was created COUNT CAPE ST. VINCENT by the Queen of Portugal. His chief exploit in the British service was at Acre in 1841; and his chief command, that of the Baltic fleet, in 1854. On his return from the Baltic, Sir Charles was offered the Grand Cross of the Bath, which he declined. He was for some time M.P. for the borough of Marylebone, and for Southwark. V. Patrice Marie Ferdinand.
VI. Sixtus Francois d'Assises-Pie.

Lineage.

This is a branch of the Sept derived from CATHOIR MOIR, King of Leinster, by his second son, DAIBE BARRACH, who inhabited the territory of Hy-Bairrche, in Queen's Co. and co. Carlow, from which they were partially driven after the invasion of 1172 by Baron Walter de Riddlesford. They derived their surname from Gorman, chief of the sept. O'Heerin, a learned historian (1420), in his Topographical Poem, page 87, writes:—

"The territory of the Ui-Bairrche of the fine glebe
Of the race of the melodious Daire Barrach;
O'Gorman received the lands,
Rapid was he in the battle meeting."

Frequent mention is made of the sept in the Annals of the Four Masters, in which its origin is traced to the most remote antiquity. O'Gormans served in the French army since the 17th century; and their nobility was confirmed, on a report made to the King by his genealogist Cherin, and members of the family were in consequence admitted to the "Honours of the Court" (Honneurs de la Cour), in 1785. Subsequently several of the family served in the Austrian army, the last one being the late Lieutenant-Colonel O'Gorman, a Knight of Malta in the Bohemian langue, who died in his Château of Choloy, in Lorraine, without issue from his marriage with Léonie, dau. of the Count de Lambertye.

Arms—Az., a lion passant between three swords erect, arg. Crest—An arm embowed in armour, grasping in the hand a sword blade, wavy, all ppr. Motto—To saeh catha agus deineadh air; also, Primi et ultimi in bello.
Seat—Château de Pixérécourt, near Nancy, France.

DE TEISSIER.

HENRY, BARON DE TEISSIER, a Baron of France, formerly capt. 8th hussars, late capt. and hon. maj. 3rd batt. Yorkshire regt., now capt. R. East Kent imp. yeo., b. 12 Sept. 1862; m. 28 Dec. 1887, Agneta Mary, dau. of F. L. Ballantine Dykes, of Dovenby Hall, co. Cumberland, and has issue,

I. GEOFFREY FITZHERBERT, b. 5 Dec. 1888.
II. Aubrey, b. 4 March, 1893.

Lineage.

This family is of very ancient foreign extraction, and is said to be descended from the Kings of Sicily, and to have served under their banner in the holy wars. It has long been enrolled as "Famille noble, originaire de Nice," in the Dictionnaire of French Noblesse (vide Dictionnaire de la Noblesse, "Teissier de Marguerittes"). The present French branch and the English protestant branch are descended in direct line from HONORE TEISSIERI, who, at the end of the XV. century, was living at Nice, when the county of Nice was part of Italy, and under the dominion of the Dukes of Savoy. He had issue, Giovan and Louis (who was premier Juge à Nice, 1537), in the reign of HENRY VIII. of England.

GIOVAN TEISSIERI, m. Jeanne de Grivandi, and had issue.

HUGUES TEISSIERI. He succeeded his uncle Louis Teissieri as premier Juge à Nice. He m. Gabrielle de Morthier, and had issue.

ETIENNE TEISSIERI. He passed from the county of Nice into France, dans les Cevennes, and was then called "Etienne de Teissier." From him the French and English branch of the Teissier family are descended. He m. Anne Robert, and, with other issue, had PIERRE and JACQUES (of whom afterwards).

PIERRE DE TEISSIER, eldest son, b. 1 June, 1640; s. his father, and settled at Anduze, in Languedoc. He m. Isabeau de Soubeiran, and had issue,

ANTOINE DE TEISSIER, b. 25 Nov. 1667. He s. his father and obtained in succession to MM. de Ventadour, the Barony of Marguerittes, in Languedoc, with the fiefs of Marguerittes Rocquecourbe, Lagarne, Coloures, in Languedoc, and was thus 1st DE TEISSIER, BARON DE MARGUERITTES. He m. Rosalie Faranda, of Palermo, in Sicily, and had issue.

J. JOSEPH M. AUGUSTIN CHRISTOPHE DE TEISSIER, 2nd Baron de Marguerittes, Seigneur de Rocquecourbe, Lagarne, Coloures, un secrétaire du roi. He m. Marie Salles, and had issue.

JEAN ANTOINE DE TEISSIER, b. 1744, 3rd Baron de Marguerittes Baron des Etats de Languedoc. He was Maire de Nismes and a député of the noblesse of Languedoc to the States General, 1789, and finally Secrétaire de l'Assemblée Nationale Constituante. He was guillotined at the Revolution, 20 May, 1794, for having defended the cause of LOUIS XVI. He m. Thérèse Gabrielle d'Amielh, and had issue three sons and six daus.

AMÉDÉE DE TEISSIER, b. 1769, 4th Baron de Marguerittes. He m. Eugenie Léonie de Fontelaye, and from him is descended the French branch of the Teissier family since the Revolution.

JACQUES DE TEISSIER (younger son of Etienne de Teissier, who passed from the county of Nice into Languedoc, in France), m. Susanne, and had issue,

ETIENNE DE TEISSIER. He left Anduze, in Languedoc, for Switzerland, on account of religion. He was received as a citizen of Geneva 13 Feb. 1699. He m. at the Temple of the Madeleine, Geneva, 16 Dec. 1696, Claudine, dau. of Matthieu Loubier, or Loubens, of Nismes, in Languedoc, by his wife, Damoiselle Marie Maystre. He had issue, James and Stephen (m. Elizabeth Loubier, and had issue). He passed into England 1712, in Queen ANNE's reign, was naturalized by Act of Parliament 1714, and d. 1722.

JAMES TEISSIER, eldest son, b. 1697, naturalized 1722 to 1723, m. Charlotte, dau. of Antoine Loubier, by his wife Izabeau Vialat, and (with Stephen, d. s. p., and Elizabeth, m. to Anthony Colombies) had issue,

LEWIS TEISSIER, b. 1736. He m. 1st, Anne Noguier, d. without issue; 2ndly, Frances, dau. of Rev. Randolph Ekins, and had issue, Frances, d. young; 3rdly, Mary, dau. of Captain James Gardner, by his wife Mary, only dau. of William Price, of Imley Park, Northamptonshire, and had issue,

Lewis, m. Harriett, dau. of R. Tavistock Price, of Rhiwlas, co. Merioneth. He d. 1817, and left two daus.
George, d. young. James, d. young.

JAMES, Baron de Teissier.
Mary D'Yranda, m. Rear-Adm. Prevost, R.N., and had issue.

JAMES, 1st Baron de Teissier, as an acknowledged lineal descendant of the family of Jean Antoine de Teissier, Baron de Marguerittes, received the title of Baron de Teissier from LOUIS XVIII., 1819, by a special and rare exercise of the prerogative of the crown and royal order, in consideration, as the letters patent express, of the kindness shown by his father, Lewis de Teissier, of Woodcote Park, Epsom, Surrey, during the French Revolution, to French subjects, and also in acknowledgment of the loyalty of the French branch of the Teissier family, the head of which, Jean Antoine de Teissier, Baron de Marguerittes, Baron des Etats de Languedoc, was guillotined at the Revolution for having defended the cause of LOUIS XVI. James, Baron de Teissier, was b. 17 March, 1794; m. 1st, 20 June, 1814, Henrietta, dau. of Henry Poyntz Lane, of Alresford, Hants, and Broadwater, Sussex, and by her (who d. 22 March, 1860) had issue,

I. JAMES FITZHERBERT, 2nd baron.
II. PHILIP ANTOINE, 3rd baron. III. HENRY PRICE, 4th baron.
IV. George Frederick (Rev.), B.D., b. 8 Oct. 1821, fellow of Corpus Christi College, Oxford, 1847–50, rector of Childrey, Berks; d. unm. 8 April, 1890.
V. Lewis Minet, b. 8 Aug. 1823, late H.E.I. Co. Bengal army.

He m. 2ndly, April, 1861, Catherine Margaret, dau. of Thomas Walpole, of Stagbury, Surrey, by his wife, the Lady Margaret Walpole (see ORFORD, EARL, and EGMONT, EARL). He d. 11 March, 1868, and was s. by his eldest son,

JAMES FITZHERBERT, 2nd BARON DE TEISSIER, lieut.-col. in H.M. army, served in the 17th foot, present at the siege of Guznee and Khelat; b. 4 Nov. 1816; m. 29 June, 1869, Horatia Caroline, youngest dau. of Nicholas Westby, of co. Clare, by Emily Susanna Laura his wife, dau. of Admiral Lord Radstock, G.C.B. She d. 25 Nov. 1900. He d. 17 Aug. 1884, and was s. by his brother,

PHILIP ANTOINE, 3rd Baron de Teissier, M.A., Oxford, in holy orders, b. 13 June, 1819; d. unm. 24 April, 1891, and was s. by his brother,

HENRY PRICE, 4th baron, b. 15 June, 1820, gen., Col. Comm. R.A.; m. 17 Jan. 1854, Mary Shirley, dau. of Henry Miller, and by her (who d. 29 Oct. 1883) had,

DE VISMES.

COUNT ALEXANDER WILLIAM THEOBALD DE VISMES, b. 10 Sept. 1888; s. his father 1895.

Lineage.

The family of DE VISMES, or DE VISME (as the name is sometimes written), descends from a branch of the sovereign house of Ponthieu, which was of the blood-royal of France, and founded by Count Angilbert, one of the great lords of the court of King Pepin, and governor of Ponthieu (a district comprising the Boulonnois, Montreuil, Guisnes, Vismes, Ardres, &c.), who m. Bertha of France, dau. of Charlemagne.

WILLIAM, Count de Vismes, was the common ancestor of the different branches of the house of DE VISMES which subsequently flourished in France. The representative of the eldest line,

JOHN, Count de Vismes, was father of two sons, viz.,

I. JOHN, Count de Vismes, whose only dau. and heiress,

JEANNE DE VISMES, conveyed the great possessions of the de Vismes to her husband, Mathieu de Cayeu, Lord of Senarpont, and left issue.

II. WILLIAM, ancestor of the Counts de Vismes.

WILLIAM, the 2nd and younger son of John, Count de Vismes, founded the branch of the family which, on the extinction of the elder, became chief of the house of De Vismes. His son and heir,

HUGH DE VISMES, was great-great-grandfather of

PHILLIPPE DE VISMES, who was established in Normandy; and his heir male,

GERARD DE VISMES, sometime in the 17th century inherited the representation of the family, and thus became Count de Vismes. On the revocation of the Edict of Nantes, the family, which had embraced the Protestant religion, settled in England. The son of this Gerard de Vismes,

PHILLIPPE DE VISMES,* de jure Count de Vismes, m. 26 July, 1716 (old style), Marianne de la Majanes, † and had,

Phillippe, whose male line is extinct.

Free for a blast. Clerk, Bt. Clark, Bt. The barony of Penicuick, the property of Sir George Clerk, Bt., is held by the singular tenure, that the proprietor must sit on a piece of rock called the Buckstane, and wind three blasts of a horn when the Sovereign shall come to hunt on the Borough Muir, near Edinburgh. Hence, the family crest with the above motto.

Ich dien. I serve. Prince of Wales. The King of Bohemia, who fell at the battle of Crécy, had three ostrich feathers for crest, and this Ich dien for motto. The ensign and legend were adopted by the Black Prince,—the words, probably, on account of their apt allusion to the good service he did the day of that victory to his royal father and his country; and they have been continued by his successors, as a lasting memorial of his triumph. There is, however, a tradition at Windsor Castle that the motto is Welch, "Eich Deen," Here's the man, words used by Edward I., on presenting his new-born son to the Welshmen.

In Canopo ut ad Canopum. Louis, Bt. The sense of this legend is the most obscure in the whole list of mottoes. The following explanation has been suggested:—Canopus is the name of a city in Egypt (Gens fortunata Canopi, Virg. Georg. iv. v. 237), now Aboukir, a place celebrated during the Crusades. The word also signifies a fixed star of the first magnitude, in the constellation of Argus, and southern hemisphere (Sidus ingens et clarum, Plin. Hist. Nat. vi. 22). The motto may therefore have been assumed by a crusader, importing that to have fought for the cross in Egypt (in Canopo), was the road to heaven (ad Canopum, equivalent to ad astra). Admiral Louis, however, having died on board the ship Canopus, another meaning, though perhaps somewhat similar, is intended.

O'Neill, B. There is a tradition that in an ancient expedition of some adventurers to Ireland, their leader declared that whoever first touched the shore should possess the territory which he reached, and that O'Neil, from whom descended the princes of Ulster, bent upon obtaining the reward, and seeing another boat likely to land, cut his left hand off and threw it on the coast. The red hand was adopted by JAMES I., as the badge on instituting the order of Baronet. The design of the institution being the colonization of the province of Ulster, in Ireland, the arms of the province were seemed the most appropriate insignia.
Lamh foisdineach an uachtar. What we gain by conquest, we secure by clemency. Sullivan, Bt.
Lamh laidir an uachtar. The strongest hand is on high. Inchiquin, B. O'Brien, Bt. The literal translation of this motto is, "The strongest hand uppermost," but by an alteration of one letter in the last word it will mean, "The strongest hand is on high," or "in heaven;" and it has been so translated by the Barons of Inchiquin, whose motto is in French, "Vigueur de dessus."
Largs. Currie, Bt. This is an allusion to the battle of "Largs," 1263, where Adam de Currie, the friend of Wallace, fought heroically against Haco.

Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S

ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CHLORODYNE

COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.—Dr. J. C. BROWNE (late Army Medical Staff) DISCOVERED A REMEDY to denote which he coined the word CHLORODYNE. Dr. Browne is the SOLE INVENTOR, and, as the composition of Chlorodyne cannot possibly be discovered by Analysis (organic substances defying elimination), and since the formula has never been published, it is evident that any statement to the effect that a compound is identical with Dr. Browne's Chlorodyne must be false.

This caution is necessary, as many persons deceive purchasers by false representations.

DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, CHOLERA.

GENERAL BOARD OF HEALTH, London, REPORT that it ACTS as a CHARM, one dose generally sufficient.

Dr. GIBBON, Army Medical Staff, Calcutta, states, "TWO DOSES COMPLETELY CURED ME OF DIARRHŒA."

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE is the true Palliative in NEURALGIA, GOUT, CANCER, TOOTHACHE, RHEUMATISM.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE is a liquid medicine which assuages PAIN OF EVERY KIND, affords a calm refreshing sleep WITHOUT HEADACHE, and INVIGORATES the nervous system when exhausted.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE rapidly cuts short all attacks of EPILEPSY, SPASMS, COLIC, PALPITATION, HYSTERIA.

IMPORTANT CAUTION.—The IMMENSE SALE of this REMEDY has given rise to many UNSCRUPULOUS IMITATIONS. Be careful to observe Trade Mark. Of all Chemists, 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9d., and 4s. 6d.

THE Hospital contains 321 Beds, and in 1901 received 1,565 In-Patients; 12,830 Out-Patients were also treated. The yearly requirements of the Hospital cannot be estimated at less than £28,000 a year. Further, it has been decided, upon the unanimous and urgent advice of the Medical Staff, to establish a and it is estimated that £60,000 will be needed to complete this important work.

Country Branch for Open Air Treatment & Convalescent Home, Heatherside

The Charity being UNENDOWED is dependent upon Donations, Annual Subscriptions and Legacies. Contributions therefore are earnestly solicited in aid of both these objects.

Every Donor of £52 10s. at one time, or at different periods within three years, becomes a Governor for life, and may recommend one In-Patient and eight Out-Patients in each year to the Hospital.

Every Subscriber of £5 5s. per annum becomes a Governor, and may recommend one In-Patient and eight Out-Patients to the Hospital during the year.

Annual Subscribers of less than £5 5s. are entitled to recommend four Out-Patients to the Hospital for each £1 1s. subscribed.

Every person making a bequest of £100 or upwards to the Hospital may nominate a Life Governor; and in the event of no such nomination being made, one of the Executors mentioned in the Will is entitled to the privileges of a Life Governor.

Messrs. BARCLAY & Co.

OBJECTS: The Reformation of Openly Immoral Women, and the Guardianship and Training of Young Girls exposed to Danger.

For the carrying out of these objects Seven Homes are maintained, accommodating 135 inmates. A small Lock Hospital is supported. Maternity cases are also received.

17,990 Young Women and Girls have already been welcomed within this "door of hope" from a course of sin, or circumstances of great danger, and thus helped to a better life.

Funds are earnestly solicited on behalf of this Reformatory and Preventive work.

Contributions will be thankfully received and acknowledged by the Secretary, MR. C. STUART THORPE, to whom all Cheques and Money Orders (crossed "BARCLAY & Co.") should be made payable, and sent to the Offices of the Society, 79, FINSBURY PAVEMENT, LONDON, E.C.

FORM OF GIFT BY WILL.

I give to the "SOCIETY FOR THE RESCUE OF YOUNG WOMEN AND CHILDREN" (here insert in words the sum of money or other property, and if it is intended add the words "free from all taxes, duties, and other expenses"), and I direct the same to be paid to the Treasurer for the time being of the said Society, and the receipt of such Treasurer shall be a sufficient discharge therefor.
